

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 1, 1882.

Grammar Schools.

The graduation exercises of the grammar schools of Quincy were held at the Town Hall, on Wednesday afternoon last. The day was quite warm and the hall was completely packed with scholars, teachers, parents and friends. On such occasions we see plainly how small and unfit the hall is to accommodate the large gatherings which desire to be present. We hope the town will take steps to enlarge it next season, unless it rains heavily in debt this year by appropriations for Neponset bridge, public park, street lights, etc. Quincy certainly needs a large hall for its public gatherings.

The exercises were quite long—over two hours—still they were very interesting, and the audience kept quiet and gave marked attention. Many of the pupils did not and we would be pleased to mention their names but forbear.

During the exercises Col. F. W. Parker entered the hall and was received with applause. Seven years ago he commenced his labors in Quincy as Superintendent of our schools, since that time great change has taken place in the method of teaching our children. The new system advanced by him has spread throughout the country.

After the exercises by the pupils were completed, Mr. E. W. Marsh, Chairman of the School Board, introduced Col. Parker, the first Superintendent of the Quincy schools. The enthusiastic applause given the Colonel must have made him feel that he was among friends who thoroughly appreciated the grand work he accomplished for the children of Quincy and for the Quincy schools. Col. Parker talked for some time in a happy and pleasing way, summing up the results of the work done in Quincy, and stating that the impulse given to education here in Quincy has reached every school in the United States. He complimented the schools of the present time, saying that as he had frequently visited them he had seen signs of a steady growth during the past two years. In speaking of the call for teachers from our schools to go to other places, Col. Parker said that there were two classes of teachers, namely, those whom every body wants and those whom no one wants. Which do we prefer? The earnest, competent teacher is not and should not be willing to settle down for life on the salaries paid here, and until better salaries are paid, (which is sure to come sooner or later), good teachers will be constantly going to other places. When Mr. Parker had closed, Mr. Marsh made a brief speech to the people and to the members of the graduating class, after which the certificates were presented.

High School.

The Town Hall was crowded, as usual, to witness the graduating exercises of the pupils of the Quincy High School, on Thursday evening. The platform was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers; and the wreaths and crosses were elegant. In the centre of the hall from the ceiling hung a large bell made of green oak leaves, which attracted much attention.

The exercises throughout were very interesting and the class history, prophecy and statistics occasioned much pleasure, and we invite those who delivered these essays to hand them to us for publication. The diplomas were presented by Edwin W. Marsh, Esq., and a graduating song closed the entertainment. The following are the names of the graduating class, in alphabetical order:—

Mabel Elery Adams, Fred Louis Badger, Mary Boyd, Annie Frances Comey, Mary Helen Cudworth, William Joseph Dell, Minnie Harriet Douth, Alice Louisa Fairchild, Dennis Joseph Dell, Maggie Theresa Garrity, Nellie Cora Gragg, Benjamin Johnson, James Reeve Lovell, William Marsh, Lizzie Mason, Annie Weston Miller, Addie Williams Miller, Mary Elizabeth Nightingale, Mary Augusta Osborne, Lizzie Wood Penny, Lillie Hooker Poisson, William John Thompson, Ellen Reed Washburn, James Sempie Whiting, James Edward Wodick.

FIRE WORKS. The best collection of fire works ever kept in Quincy can be found at the Post Office store as can be seen by the advertisement, to which we refer the attention of the readers. Do not fail to make your selections early as possible and thereby avoid the rush of patrons which can be an elaborate stock of superior goods must attract. The goods are all of first quality, and Mr. Pierce has marked them low as he intends to dispose of the entire stock. Do those purchasing quantities he will make a discount.

Brief Locals.

Adams Academy.

The closing exercises of the Adams Academy were held in the school-house at 10.45, on Tuesday, the 27th.

The program was occupied by Charles H. Porter, Esq., and Rev. Edward Norton, of the Board of Managers; Josiah Quincy, Jr., and Rev. Wm. Hague, D. D. The opening address in Latin was delivered by A. C. Sprague of Wollaston; oration of the graduating class by A. H. Vogel of Milwaukee, poem by A. C. Coolidge of Brookline; address on the career of John Adams, by W. S. Frinkham of Wollaston. This last was omitted, by an act of forgetfulness on the part of the Master, for which he desires us to offer his deep and sincere apologies in this public way. We will insert the address in our next issue.

Short addresses, expressive of good will and encouragement to the graduates, were delivered by Messrs. Porter, Hague, and Rev. Evan Cotton, all enforcing with great feeling the point of development of character, rather than any special branch, as the true end of an academy training. The exercises closed with prayer by Dr. Everett.

The prizes awarded were as follows:—
Cards of Appreciation:—Largest number in the school: Perry Lawson of Quincy, who has not been absent once in the year; last class, Arthur Sprague; 2d, C. E. Lord of Weymouth; 3d, Herbert M. Federhen of Quincy Point.

Excellent in Classics and History:—1st, W. S. Frinkham; 2d, C. F. Ayer of Lowell; 3d, Herbert M. Federhen; 4th, Perry Lawson.

Excellent in Mathematics:—1st, W. S. Frinkham; 2d, J. C. Robinson of Westfield; 3d, Henry Edwards of Quincy; 4th, Perry Lawson.

For Written Exercises:—Translation into Latin, C. L. Gibson of Boston; from Homer, T. Sedgwick of Stockbridge; from Virgil and also from Cicero, C. E. Lord.

The Brackett English Essay:—A. C. Coolidge.

It is the opinion of the teachers of the school that the fourteen young men who graduated this year are inferior to no graduating class in their whole experience. Messrs. Fiam and Sprague of Wollaston have taken the entire four years' course with unbroken credit.

The following are the names of the class graduates:—
Paul Allen, New York; William W. Bruner, San Francisco; C. H. David, Chamberlain, West Hingham; Robert G. Cook, Canandaigua, N. Y.; Archibald C. Coolidge, Brookline; William S. Ennis, Decatur, Ill.; Charles L. Gibson, Boston; Walter S. Frinkham, Wollaston; Henry A. Galt, Weymouth; Theodore Sedgwick, Stockbridge; William L. Smith, Worcester; Arthur C. Sprague, Wollaston; Augustus H. Vogel, Milwaukee; Wm. Crosby C. Whitman, Virginia, Nev.

THAYER ACADEMY. We had the pleasure of listening to the graduating exercises at Thayer Academy, Braintree, on Tuesday last, and were very much pleased. Quincy was well represented, there being five from this town, of the twelve who graduated.

The following are the names of the graduating class:—
Sarah Lewis Arnold, of Braintree; Emma Lydia Clarke, of Holbrook; Daniel Costello, of Quincy; Emlene Sprague, of Quincy; Edwin Stetson, of Plymouth; Charles W. Frinkham, of Quincy; George Clinton Goodwin, of Lexington; Lizzie Dwight Leach, of Randolph; Charles Ezekiel Merrill, of Braintree; Etta Prescott, of Quincy; Grace Willard Stevens, of Braintree; Annie Elizabeth Walker, of Quincy.

At 3.30 in the afternoon the graduating class held a reception in the Academy hall, to which the friends of the class were invited. Music was furnished by Monk's orchestra.

Quincy was the order of the afternoon, and continued until eight o'clock in the evening, being interrupted only for the excellent lunch provided by the class. The floor was under the management of Messrs. Goodwin, C. Goodwin, and James H. Leatherbee, who were assisted by W. F. Doble, H. C. Wood and W. F. Smith. A very enjoyable time was the unanimous verdict.

For the Patriot.
Citizens' Temperance Committee.

A meeting of the Citizens' Temperance Committee was held on Thursday evening, at which it was voted to raise a fund to be used as occasion may require, for the enforcement of the liquor laws. Five hundred and twenty-five dollars were raised by those present, and as many of the committee were at the Town Hall, attending the graduation exercises, the work of the day was easily doubled.

The Committee desire to congratulate the citizens of the town upon the great change which has taken place in the last sixty days. The last April there were two licensed places, and some eight or ten unlicensed, were openly and indiscriminately selling intoxicating liquors. Now only three licenses (druggists) are issued. There has probably not since the year 1800 been so much liquor has been sold in Quincy, as now. No drunkards are being made. Doubtless there are some places where liquor is sold to habitual drinkers whom the seller denies it safe to trust not to expose them. There is also more law delivered at residences of parties to whom it is not deemed safe to sell at the place of business.

The Committee earnestly desire the co-operation of all good citizens in their efforts to secure the enforcement of the law. Any parties knowing of the sale or delivery of liquor, will confer a favor by informing any member of the Executive Committee, or Mr. H. H. Faxon.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
Theophilus King, Jr., Chairman, Quincy Centre; H. H. Faxon, South Quincy; - G. H. Locke, West Quincy; - Jonas Shackley, Wollaston; - C. F. Parker, Atlantic; - T. B. Emery, Quincy Point; - Walton Hall, T. A.

ROBERTS. Burglars entered the houses of F. W. Hatch, Luther Magoon, Luther P. Hatch and Charles F. Hatch at Marshfield, on Tuesday night. At Mr. F. W. Hatch's they took his watch and about $100 from his pants, which were in his sleeping room; and at Luther Magoon's a watch and sum of money were taken. At C. T. and L. P. Hatch's nothing was obtained, the robbers being frightened away by the awakening of the men in the house.

For the Patriot.

The Willard School House.

Having read the article in the PATRIOT addressed to the School Committee, but more especially to myself, I will simply state the facts:—
Last January I requested Mr. Jonas Shackley to give me an approximate estimate of what it would cost to put in a foundation and extend the Willard School House. He gave me a foundation cost five thousand dollars, and the building four thousand dollars. This was without any desks, seats or blackboards. At the town meeting in March the town made an appropriation of six thousand for this addition, and the School Committee through the PATRIOT advertised for proposals to do the work in accordance with the plans and specifications; reserving the right to reject any or all bids as they might think for the interests of the town. The only bid was the one received from Mr. Shackley, proposing to do the work for fifty-five hundred dollars, which was an increase of one thousand dollars from his former estimate. A few days after his bid was opened I asked him how it was he was so much higher than his former estimate. He said that the cellar would cost three hundred dollars more, as in his former estimate he only gave estimate for foundation, which would make the cellar cost eight hundred dollars. The School Committee then had a meeting and thought best to let the cellar and the building separate, and the letting of the cellar with Mr. I then saw Mr. Maloney, the stone mason, and asked him his price for the cellar according to the plans and specifications. He said he would give me the same price that he gave Mr. Shackley, which was five hundred dollars all complete. But he afterwards said he would do the job for four hundred and seventy-five dollars, which was three hundred and twenty-five dollars less than Mr. Shackley said it would cost; and I closed my contract with Mr. Maloney for the cellar, and for the building with H. F. Doble & Jacob Morrison for four thousand, six hundred dollars saving for the town by rejecting Mr. Shackley's bid four hundred and twenty-five dollars.

Mr. Harris and Republicanism.
To the Publishers of the Patriot:—
It may not be very easy to define at the present day just what Republicanism is; but if by the word means anything, it means the principle of self government, and the right of the people to elect their representatives in convention, and that convention formally adopts certain political doctrines. The party candidates are afterwards elected upon the party platform, and the party platform is that of a Republican Representative in Congress openly repudiates in his official acts an important plank of the platform; is there any escape from the conclusion that to that extent he is not a good Republican? The Republican party, which the late Republic can state convention spoke clearly and vigorously for reform in the civil service. More than this, it enjoined upon members of Congress "the duty of advancing this reform by every means in their power." The Representative Mr. Harris advances the reform by endorsing Mr. Worthington, its chief enemy, for the most important federal office in New England. Here comes to be a square conflict between Mr. Harris and the Republican party, which the late Republic can state convention spoke clearly and vigorously for reform in the civil service. Sonnet.
BY DR. McFARLANE.

Hail June, winsome and sweet,
A carpet of green is spread for thy feet,
Lilies and roses with music grow here,
The woods and meadows are all in a cheer.

Starry-eyed, lily-faced, sweet-loathed June,
Ah, the bliss of the wine thou dost give,
Strolling and chatting under the moon,
When thy lips kiss the air, and the dew.

A d-d bull-frog blabbers his blabber horn,
Willows weep 'neath thy gentle sway,
Five-fives glitter to light thy way,
The woods and meadows are all in a cheer.

Are you with greetings you maiden to me,
Rose-petals, flower-crowned June,
Ah, the bliss of the wine thou dost give,
Strolling and chatting under the moon.

When the fragrant air is calm and still,
And the grasshopper works his mellow mill,
Willows weep 'neath thy gentle sway,

The Special Meeting.

The meeting held on Saturday evening last was well attended, considering it was a special meeting, although there were not so many as was anticipated considering the large number of important articles in the warrant. Between 400 and 500 voters were present, of some 2500 in town.

The Town Clerk called the assembly to order, and after the reading of the warrant, on motion of Warren W. Adams, Hon. John Quincy Adams was chosen Moderator.

Article 2, to see if the town will choose three Park Commissioners, under an act of the Legislature, was next in order.

William G. A. Patter moved that a committee of six, one from each school district, be appointed by the Moderator, who shall retire and report the names of three citizens for a Board of Park Commissioners.

Seth Dewing, Jr., moved to lay article 2 on the table, and take up article 3, and, in the first place, present the town was desirous of having a park. If the town was not disposed to appropriate money for a park, it was useless to choose Park Commissioners.

Mr. Patter said it was absolutely necessary first to choose Commissioners, and then to see if the town would authorize them to take land.

Mr. Dewing said it seemed useless for a committee to nominate Park Commissioners unless the town was willing to appropriate money for a park, which he did not think they were willing to do.

Charles F. Adams, Jr., said it was a very simple thing. It was only to appoint a committee and have them retire and select three Park Commissioners, and while they were out on the meeting could discuss the next article.

The meeting accepted Mr. Patter's motion, and the Moderator appointed a committee of six, consisting of the following gentlemen: William G. Sheen, Herbert M. Federhen, Charles R. Sherman, John A. Duggan, John H. Deane and John E. Burns.

While this committee was out article 3 was taken up. Charles H. Porter, Esq., moved that the Park Commissioners be instructed to take that portion of the Greenleaf farm north of Black's brook, as is marked green on the map drawn by Messrs Whitman & Breck, and found in the report of the Merry Mount Park Association.

The Moderator requested all, when the vote was taken, to stand while the tellers were counting, and appointed the following gentlemen to count the vote: Lewis Bass, Seth Dewing, Jr., William G. A. Patter, William Parker, Josiah Quincy, Jr., and John A. Duggan.

Mr. Dewing asked for some explanation in regard to the motion. Mr. Patter attempted to make the thing plain, but Mr. Dewing said he understood the object, but did not see how the Commissioners could take land unless the town first made an appropriation.

The vote was then taken and resulted as follows:—yea, 186; nay, 161. It not being a two-thirds vote, as required by the Park Act, it defeated the movement of the park advocates, but no one felt more keenly than Mr. Adams, Jr., who has spent much time and study in endeavoring to bring the thing forward to a successful beginning.

It aroused his ire, and he addressed those who had the audacity to vote against him in a manner not becoming a gentleman and a scholar.

There were those present old enough to be his father; men of wisdom; men of wealth; men of learning; men of judgment; who believed it wise to vote against the park scheme; not, perhaps, because they did not wish for a park, but when taxes are $16 to $18 on a thousand and other heavy and necessary appropriations are asked for, they thought it judicious to act in a conservative manner. These men felt hurt at what Mr. Adams said, and we are sorry to say will now take special pains to go against the project.

A little "out of kindness," and a vote taken at a more opportune moment, it might have been a success.

There can be no doubt but a public park is a grand thing for this, or any town, and not a better spot could probably be selected in this town; and, in time, we believe the thing can be accomplished. But with a vote in the affirmative of less than 200, in a town of 2,500 voters, it appears foolish to attempt to hold the lash over the heads of any.

We give below the substance of Mr. Adams' remarks, but not the precise words. They are probably nearer what he would have said if he had not spoken upon the excitement of the moment.

"It only remained to move the indefinite postponement of all the articles in the warrant relating to a park. In doing so, however, he wished to give distinct notice that this question was not settled. By repeated votes it had been shown that a majority in the town was in favor of this park-scheme. Those composing that majority did not believe that on holidays and in summer the public streets and the gutters were good enough for those who could not afford gardens of their own; they did believe that the children of the poorest should have, and ought to have, a public pleasure ground in which they had as much right as any one else. A majority of the voters present had thought otherwise. They had taken the position that the streets and gutters were good enough for the poor and the children of the poor. They had consequently, for the time being, defeated the project. In this country, however, the majority is accustomed to have its own way in the end; and accordingly, on behalf of the Merry Mount Park Association, on behalf of a majority of the voters present, and an immense majority of the voters of the town, the speaker wished them and there to serve notice on the minority, and to all interested, that they propose to have a park, and that they propose to have it. [Applause.] Defeated now, they did not propose to cease a moment in their efforts. They meant to educate the minority up until they also thought that streets and gutters were not good enough for poor men's children;—that it was the duty of Quincy, as of every town, to own and preserve a common field open and free to all. This the majority yet meant to do, and he gave notice that until it was done not a town meeting should be held, general, annual or special, that this park question should not come up and be brought to the front in it."

Joseph W. Lombard will sell on Monday next a French Cottage House on Quarry street. The house is convenient and pleasantly situated and is quite desirable.

Articles 11 and 12, relative to leasing the old library building and locating the new one, were taken up, but were not decided, as the vote was not taken, as the committee thought it was, these articles were indefinitely postponed. As there was no further business the meeting was then dissolved.

At the State Normal School at Wareburg, Mass., Miss Carrie F. Torrey, daughter of the late Joseph Torrey of this town, graduated with the first honors of the school.

Auctioneer Lombard will sell some excellent building lots at West Quincy, on the 17th inst. He also has advertised an excellent lot on Coddington street, for Tuesday next.

The clam lake at Taylor's new building, at Quincy Dock, was quite largely attended and much enjoyed on the Fourth. The collation (sal station) was excellent for the occasion.

Mr. John B. Bass, our postmaster, made quite a change in his office, on Monday evening, moving from the rear of the building to one side and adding some new lock boxes. Quite an improvement.

There will be a session of Probate Court held in the Town House on Wednesday morning next. This will be the last session held in Quincy until September; the judge taking a vacation during August.

The F. F. F.'s go on their fourth annual excursion on Wednesday, July 19th. They have chartered a large boat and will make a trip to the historic town of Plymouth, leaving Quincy Point at 7:45 A. M.

Many of the readers of the Patriot will be pained to learn of the continued serious illness of Mr. Frank Marden, at his residence in Dorchester. He was for a number of years an active citizen of Quincy.

A petition has been received by the Road Commissioners to lay out a passage from Maple place to Chestnut street. All interested are invited to meet the Road Commissioners next Saturday at 3 o'clock.

Last Friday evening, Post 88, G. A. R., held another of their socials in Paul Revere Hall. Although the attendance was quite small, owing to unfavorable weather, those who were present enjoyed the beautiful supply of strawberries and cream.

There was a big row in the vicinity of the Unitarian Church on Wednesday night, which lasted between one and two hours. Some fifteen or twenty persons were engaged in it, but no one of the company has been brought before the court up to this morning.

GOING TO EUROPE. Mr. William D. Webb of this town, who has been in the employ of one of the largest dry goods firms in the country, Messrs. Jordan Marsh & Co., of Boston, for a number of years, leaves to-day for Europe as a buyer of silks, &c., for the firm. The position given Mr. Webb is to be a very responsible one and we congratulate the young man, who has thus won by his attention to the interest of his employers, their esteem and confidence. May his trip be a pleasant and prosperous one.

BURNED TO DEATH. On Tuesday last a bright little boy of three years of age, son of Mr. James Milne, in some unaccountable manner, had his clothes set on fire, and before the flames were extinguished he was terribly burned about the back and bowels. His father had left him and his baby sister playing with a little wagon on High School avenue, only about ten minutes before he heard the screams of his little child, which attracted him to the door, when he found the little fellow all in flames. The poor child lingered about thirty hours after the accident, when death relieved him from his sufferings. Mr. Milne, the child's father, in his efforts to extinguish the flames, burned of his hands very severely. The parents think their child must have got the back of his dress on fire from the sparks of a fire cracker; he had neither fire cracker or match to his knowledge, nor was the front portion of his dress, or his little face burned, which seemed evident that he did not set himself on fire.

The strawberry pick has not been so abundant with us as last year; neither is the fruit so good in quality.

Brief Locals.

Two nice milk cows and calves are offered for sale.

A smart boy is wanted to learn the drug business.

Florence L. Goodnow has gone to Cohasset to spend a part of her vacation.

Mr. Benj. F. Curtis and family have gone to their cottage at Point Allerton.

Mr. Alexander Vining and Miss Floretta Vining moved on Monday to their cottage at Hull.

A dry goods peddler was robbed of $15 or $20 worth of goods, on Water street, on Thursday last.

Carrie, Minnie and Alice Litchfield, daughters of Elwood Litchfield are rusticated in Townsend, N. H.

Dr. S. M. Donovan, has removed to the residence recently occupied by the late Dr. Madison, Hancock street.

There was a very large attendance at the Quincy House on Sunday last, some sixty or more being present.

Rev. Mr. Hastings of the Christian Union Church, Quincy Point, will preach at the Quincy House, to-morrow at 3 o'clock.

Joseph T. French, sells many useful articles belonging to the Library at the old Public Library building on Tuesday next.

The class poem read at the Adams Academy graduation by its author, A. C. Coolidge, will be published in our next issue.

John Swinith was pretty badly used by a rough on Thursday, and it was reported yesterday that he was lying in a critical condition.

Fruit and flowers for the Boston hospitals, may be sent on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday next to the house of Mr. J. W. Hall, Hancock street.

Woman's Column.

Ms. Sarah Burger Stearns, of Minnesota, a member of the Duluth school board, has invented a simple but excellent ventilating apparatus for the school room.

A constitutional amendment has been adopted in Iowa by more than 40,000 majority, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. This is largely due to the efforts of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of that State.

The Des Moines Register, in speaking of the courage shown by the women during the recent storm at Grinnell, says: "It is notable that the women were more composed than the men. They endured the storm better, and can tell now of it, and talk more collectedly about it now."

Maria Mitchell, professor of astronomy in Vassar College, has just received the degree of LL. D. from Hanover College, at Madison, Ind. This is, we believe, the first instance in which the degree of LL. D. has been conferred upon a woman, and Hanover College has the credit of it.

The secretary of the Harvard "Amex" has, it is said, received intimations that at least two persons now preparing their wills, have included in their bequests to help the cause of the education of women at Cambridge, and that offers of money for immediate use have also been made.

Miss Forney, daughter of the late Colonel Forney, of Philadelphia, is one of the editors of the Progress, headquartered to her and to her brother by the founder. These children, who have inherited their father's talents as well as his newspaper, are faithfully trying to carry out his ideas.

The Boston Globe, in an excellent leading editorial, commends and upholds the appointment of women on school boards. The opinion expressed is based on the evident good results, during the eight years since the passage of the law to enable women to hold this position.

The first college in Canada to grant the degree of B. A. to a woman was that of Mt. Allison, in New Brunswick, in 1872. Since that time, many other colleges have followed the lead.

Star Stewart, the fortunate young lady, who was the usual college cap and gown as she came in with her fellow graduates, and her well prepared oration was received with applause.

Fashion Notes.

Red bronze is new for buttons and buckles on chameleon suits.

Dated and plain muffs are both brought out again this season.

Evening dresses are trimmed with embroidered ruffles and tulle.

Silk pocket-handkerchiefs are preferred to linen for small boys' use.

The combinations of black and white, in vogue twenty years ago, revived.

Embroidery should match the dress, in vogue instead of being contrasted with it.

Marguerite dresses of white or pale blue cashmere are in favor with young ladies.

Basket-cloth effects are mingled with serge effects in some of the new woollen goods.

A poke, fan and parasol are important with country dresses of cretonne, foulard and percale.

The hand-knit stockings of shoe-thread or Italian thread, which is the most fashionable and very smooth, are in high esteem for summer wear, with instep knit in shell or wave pattern.

Riding habits are usually of dark-green or navy-blue cloth. They are cut in severe English style and fastened with frogs of passementerie. The skirts are shorter and less cumbersome than those formerly made.

Handsome hair-ribbons of very fine undressed kid, to be worn with full dresses, have wide satin bands at the top, decorated with tiny clusters of rose-buds, or painted with a monogram or crest in gold or silver.

Large poke-bonnets of fine black porcupine straw or of straw, which are designed for morning wear, are simply trimmed with a large Alsatian bow of black velvet or black gros-grain, ornamented with a pattern of gold tinsel brocade. The brim of the hat is faced with shirred velvet.

Household Receipts.

DUMPLINGS. One quart yeast flour, two teaspoons of sifted powder, one size of an egg, water to mix. Steam ten minutes.

SPONGE CAKE. To three eggs, well beaten, add a cup of white sugar, half cup of water, a cup of flour and two teaspoons of yeast powder.

PLAIN COOKIES. One half cup butter, one cup of sugar, one cup sweet milk, one egg, two teaspoons of yeast powder, flour enough to roll.

COTTAGE PUDDING. Half cup butter, one teaspoon of sugar, one teaspoon of milk, one pint flour, one egg, two teaspoons of yeast powder. Serve with hot sauce.

CUP CAKE. Two eggs, one cup sugar, beaten with one-half cup butter, one-half cup milk, one and one-half cups flour, a little powder, two teaspoons of yeast powder.

BAKED TOMATOES. Select large ones, remove part of the inside but do not skin; make a stuffing of any kind of cooked meat chopped fine, bread crumbs, green corn, minced onion or parsley, a well beaten egg, butter, salt and pepper; fill the tomatoes with this dressing, put a piece of butter on the top of each, and bake in a hot oven for three-quarters of an hour.

One may gain that variety which is essential at the well regulated table, by preparing corn in this way one in a while: Take a can of corn, open it, and spread the corn over a platter, to make sure that there are not bits of stalk or silk left in it;

Poetry.
POEM FOR THE CLASS OF '82
 OF ADAMS ACADEMY.
 BY ARCHIBALD CARY COOLIDGE, OF BROOKLINE, MASS.
 Shall I tell the well-known story
 Of my comrades and their glory,
 And their deeds?
 "Dis me defunct," truly,
 I'll said in order duly.
 All the occasion needs.
 Once upon a midnight dreary,
 As I pondered 'neath my weary
 In my chair;
 It was a very quiet night,
 I no longer could see clearly,
 And was minus hair.
 The electric light was burning dimly,
 The electric light was smiling grimly
 In my face;
 But my thoughts were far away,
 And I was once more surveying
 The old familiar place.
 The school-house once more appearing,
 Now its stately form is rearing
 Up on high;
 Walls of brick and roof well stated,
 Where John Hancock, it is stated,
 Moved his "Rock and Rye."
 Here's the house in which we boarded,
 I would not tell it if it were hoarded
 Much too well;
 Still its purpose well it suited,
 Though its comfort is a mooted Point in truth.
 Let me think again all over
 Those sweet days I lived in clover
 In Quincy town;
 Now I see familiar faces,
 And their forms my memory traces
 And notes down,
 Help me to close my eyes of history,
 Come, my comrades, my history,
 All me sweet Thalia:
 All we miss gave and stately,
 On Parnassus perched sedately,
 We inspire.
 Help me without hesitation,
 As helps my exalted station
 Here to tell
 All our deeds and actions plainly,
 And not altogether vainly,
 What befell.
 First about our great eleven:
 Football matches played the seven—
 And every science we could choose,
 We wrote five essays in one week
 To prove the truth of Mother Goose.
 Here Teddy Sedgwick is the last
 Of those who stayed until the last,
 For all the others have passed,
 Whom forth this year our school did send.
 We'll come close the famous list,
 For history tells what he has done;
 He was a great chirographist.
 And rivalled Doctor Kennison.
 Three others let me mention here,
 Who, although members of the class,
 Before the ending of the year,
 From the scene we all saw pass.
 Alas that such gifts were not
 To such great things as he could do,
 Though such gifts went up our very nose,
 The future class of eighty-three Took from us our beloved Bowles.
 Why did we lose our Whittier?
 The foot-ball's pride, the base-ball's hope;
 His equal never was before,
 Some with success with him could cope.
 But stop, it is indeed the same
 Decided step and glancing eye,
 The switch-like form, the manly frame,
 The head a beacon in the sky.
 Oh Reynolds, 'twas with grief we all Heard you had left us, one sad day,
 Not even Jimmie was at all,
 So fine a specimen in his way.
 This is the list of boys produced by our first class this year,
 The country was proud of them all, and indeed with very good reason;
 For in the list of every one the world might find enough of riches of the kind.
 To the present let me turn my mind.
 Now I wipe away a tear,
 At the parting which is near,
 For we'll soon take our stations,
 For the examinations,
 Then will come to view
 What we all can do.
 And when they're past,
 Home, home, at last,
 Now to all,
 Great and small,
 Say I,
 Good bye.

Installation Ceremony.

On Friday evening of last week the Granite Commandery of the United Order of the Golden Cross held an installation of officers at Faxon Hall. There was quite a gathering present, consisting in part of a large delegation from a Boston Commandery, and friends from this vicinity. The installation services were very impressive and interesting, and were performed by Sir Knights Deputies, S. B. Harvey, J. Winston and Lady Harriet, installing officers from a Boston Commandery. The following are the officers of the Granite Commandery for the ensuing term:

Commander, W. L. Qualey.
Vice-Commander, Susan A. Qualey.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies the company were pleasantly entertained with some fine music, both vocal and instrumental, and interesting addresses. Messrs. Winston and Harvey of the Boston Commandery, made excellent addresses explanatory of the objects and relations of the order, which were listened to with great interest. A fine collation was spread in the lower hall, and the company were entertained in a regal manner.

Universalist Picnic.

The Universalist Sunday School, with members of the Society and others, went to Melville Garden, Hingham, on Wednesday last. The day, although quite hot, was pleasant at these beautiful grounds, and an excellent time was enjoyed. The garden is kept so neat and orderly, from its luxuriant lawns and walks, that it is always safe for women and children. Then the flying-horses, the swings, the monkeys, the bears, together with dancing, boating and bathing, give an excellent opportunity to pass a day delightfully; to say nothing of the nice clam-bake dinners, ice cream and other refreshments to satisfy the appetite. If one cannot enjoy a few hours pleasantly at this lovely spot, we hardly know where to invite one to go, even enjoying the nice breezes, beneath the beautiful trees by the water-side, is on a warm day a treat. We found parties from Hyde Park and other places there, still there was ample room for all. On the Fourth of July not less than 3000 enjoyed the day at this favorite spot.

INSTALLATION. The officers elect of St. Paul's Lodge, K. of P., of Quincy, for the ensuing term, were duly installed on Monday evening by District Deputy Richards and suite. After the installation, the assembly were invited to the Lyceum Room, where a bountiful supply of strawberries, ice cream and cake were spread for their enjoyment. While the officers and members were feasting on the good things, words reached their ears that the Board of Engineers were in an adjoining room, laboring for the good of their department and a polite invitation was extended to them, to partake of the collation and to tell what they knew of Damon and Pythias, which they kindly accepted. The following are the officers installed:

P. C., Charles N. Dison.

V. C., Joseph T. French.

T. C., S. K. Tarbois.

Preceptor, G. W. Prescott.

K. of R. and S., W. H. H. Ride-out.

M. of F., Christopher A. Spear.

M. of E., Washington M. French.

M. of A., T. J. H. Thayer.

J. G., Albert A. Hayden.

G. S., Eldridge Cross.

Feetmen, George Saville and Thomas Magee.

PERSONAL. We were much pleased to receive a call on Wednesday from Mr. Seth Arthur Pratt of Weymouth, grandson of Mrs. Joseph Burdell of this town. Mr. Pratt has just returned from Zanzibar, Africa. He has been nearly two years in Africa, and several months of the time he never saw a white person. He was in the employ of the large trading house of George Ropes of Boston, and has had opportunities of seeing much of the country. He says the farther he got from civilization the less drunkenness he saw. Mr. Pratt was looking well, and can entertain his friends very pleasantly, describing his travels through Africa, and the manners and customs of the people in that far-off land.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS. At the last regular meeting of Clan McGregor, No. 5, held June 26th in Revere Hall, the following members were elected officers for the ensuing term:

Chief, Robert Farquharson.

V. Chief, Joseph Walker, 2d.

Chaplain, William McDonald.

Secretary, William S. Murray.

Financial Secretary, John A. Wright.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1882.

SILVER WEDDING. One of the pleasantest events which have lately transpired in this vicinity occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Gibson, on Granite street, on Monday evening, the 17th inst., the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, which was observed in a very appropriate manner. The number of invited guests was quite large, and included many of their old neighbors and friends, whose hearty congratulations and expressions of regard must have been a source of much pleasure and gratification. The large number of pretty and costly presents which the couple were the recipients of, also indicated very conclusively the high esteem in which they are held. Everything that was really necessary was done to make all present felt perfectly at home, and after some time had been spent in a social manner, the company were invited to partake of a bountiful repast which was, indeed, quite tempting to the appetite and to which it was needless to add all did ample justice. At a late hour the company retired to their homes. The occasion was in every respect most happy one and it will doubtless long be remembered by all who were present, as one of much pleasure and enjoyment.

NEW CHURCH. At an adjourned parish meeting of the Society held on Wednesday evening, it was decided to build a new Universalist Church in Quincy, on the site of the present one, with a large airy vestry under the same, which is to be nearly all above ground. J. L. Faxon, Esq., has been engaged to furnish the necessary plans and specifications which will be ready for proposals from contractors in a few weeks; and the work of building, the committee is in hopes to see commenced in about four weeks. The church will be of about the same capacity as the present one and will have circular pews. The organ and singers will be placed at the left of the preacher instead of at the opposite end of the church; and the windows will be of stained glass. A very handsome steeple one hundred feet high will be located on the west corner of the building. If the design presented on Wednesday evening, is carried out the society will have one of the handsomest and most convenient churches to be found in this vicinity. May success attend them.

DOWNER LANDING. A grand reunion and picnic of the Norfolk County G. A. B. Boys, will be held at Melville Garden, Downer Landing, next Thursday. Paul Revere Post and lady friends will leave here on one of the morning trains for Boston, and enjoy a harbor excursion to the garden. Post Commander in Chief, George S. Merrill, Department Commander, Geo. H. Patch and Staff, Hon. Henry B. Pierce, J. G. B. Adams and others will be present and enliven the occasion with speaking, &c. The Division will be accompanied by the Weymouth Brass Band, and will have a dress parade in the afternoon.

FATAL ACCIDENT. Henry Jones, son of the late William Jones, a lad of about fourteen years, met with an accident on Thursday evening which proved fatal. While working in a mill, playing with a derrick, it accidentally fell over, hitting him on the head, breaking his skull, and he lived but a few hours. The loss is quite a severe blow to his mother, it being her oldest boy, and a smart promising lad. Mrs. Jones has been quite severely afflicted of late, having been called to part with a husband, a father, and a son, all within a brief period.

PICNICS. Clam Mc Gregor held their annual picnic at Lovell's Grove to-day, and a general good time is expected. Carriages will be in the square to convey the party to the grove. The Catholic Society of Hyde Park held their picnic at Lovell's Grove on Tuesday, and over 1000 persons were present.

THE ARMY WORM. Various parts of Quincy have been visited this week by this destructive black worm. They usually appear in such large quantities as to devour everything within reach. A large collection was noticed at the Quincy station on Wednesday and Thursday. Their intention was, no doubt of getting Officer Fernald to pass over the road to some more productive field in the interior, but they met with poor success.

FROM A NEWSPAPER. called Ketchum, Keystone, published at Ketchum, Idaho, we copy the following item, which refers to a money boy, a son of the late Thompson Barker, who keeps a fine hotel at that place: "Paul P. Barker, the popular hotel man of Ketchum, is rushed from early morning till late at eve, supplying the patrons of his house. He feeds from 150 to 200 every meal."

OBITUARY. Rev. Louis E. Charlot, of Boston, died suddenly at Haverhill on Wednesday evening, of apoplexy. He was a member of the Reform Club Convention and had started for the railroad depot to return, when he suddenly expired. He was well known in this vicinity as a temperance speaker, and formerly resided in South Braintree, and was pastor of the Methodist Society.

NEVONSET. Mr. Geo. E. Frost of Nevonset returned from a long stay at Newwood, greatly improved in health. He has been greatly afflicted for nearly six months, but is now on a fair way to recovery. A large shipment of nice June butter has been received by Mr. John Ramsdell, which he is selling at quite low prices.

TAXES. The Assessors of Quincy are still busy figuring up the rate of taxation. It will take some weeks yet before they can finish their labors. By the new law which prevents double taxation, the personal property has been reduced some $600,000.

THE FIRST YEAR'S running of the Brockton Horse Railroad shows that during that time 396,992 passengers were carried.

MASSACHUSETTS is likely to have a good apple crop this year, and in Maine there is a prospect that the great crop of last year will be duplicated.

Brief Locals.

"No services at the Quincy Home to-morrow."
Miss Georgie Gilman is visiting with friends in Concord, N. H.

Miss Susie C. Flint has gone to Amherst to spend her vacation.
Mr. Harry Luce has gone West, for a few weeks, combining business with pleasure.

A report is in circulation that Mrs. M. Hurlbut has been burned out in San Francisco.

Col. White has bought Mr. S. Williams' house on Hancock street, and is intending to move there soon.

A Catalpa tree is in blossom on the estate of the late Mrs. George Nightingale. It looks very handsome.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chase and Miss Anna Bumpus have been enjoying a week very pleasantly in Amherst.

William Parker is building a fine house for Professor Bush, on School street, on land adjoining the stone school-house.

Mr. Albert J. Shackley, and his sister, Miss Annie L., are spending a few weeks among friends in Maine and New Hampshire.

Religious services will not be held at the Quincy Home for the next six weeks, as the pastors of the several societies have their vacations.

Messrs. Edward W. Souther, John C. Randall, and Tilton A. Mead have gone to the woods in Maine on a hunting and fishing excursion.

Fruit and flowers for the Boston hospitals, may be sent on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday next, to the house of Rev. E. Norton, Linden place.

The flies and mosquitoes are spending their annual vacation in town and judging from the number of some evenings this week should say they had brought all their cousins and their ants.

Joseph W. Lombard sold at auction on Tuesday afternoon next, on Water street, a lot of household furniture, belonging to Mr. Thomas Northcott, who intends to leave soon for Europe.

The Knights and Knights and Ladies of Honor, of this town, will visit Brother Taber at the Linden House, Hough's Neck, on Wednesday evening, next. A good time is anticipated.

The Sunday School connected with the Methodist Church, West Quincy, held their picnic at Foxkapog, Canton, on Thursday. A large number went, and all returned with the verdict of a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Aldrich have been in town a few days this week. Mr. Aldrich will be remembered as principal of the Adams School, and Mrs. Aldrich as assistant teacher at the High School, about five years ago.

The following delegates from this town attended the convention of Reform Clubs at Haverhill, on Wednesday last: Henry Chubbuck, John D. Sutton, Henry H. Faxon, Frederick Southern, George Vazlie and Nelson Hersey.

The Pine Point House has been doing quite a large business the past few weeks. The house is run on temperance principles, the meals are served in good taste, and we are glad to see that this will be a success for the manager, Mr. Isaac Holt of Boston.

Messrs. John Shaw, Charles Tilton, John Newcomb, and Misses Clara Tilton, Annie Newcomb, Ella Magee and Marcella Southern, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Holt, have been occupying Newcomb's cottage at Hough's Neck, for the past few days.

Joseph W. Lombard will sell at auction on Monday afternoon next, about one hundred acres of salt grass, consisting of two parcels, as will be noticed by advertisements in another column. These sales offer a grand opportunity for the purchase of purchasing a few lots of nice salt grass.

Quincy was visited on Wednesday afternoon by a heavy shower, accompanied by a few claps of thunder. The lightning struck the barn of Mr. John Q. A. Field, but did little damage. Several workmen who had taken shelter in the building felt the shock quite severely, one was knocked to the floor, but was not much injured.

APPOINTMENT. The President has appointed our able District Attorney, Asa French, Esq., as one of the Commissioners for the distribution of the Geneva award, authorized by the present Congress. It is a position where discretion and firmness are necessary for the administration of justice, and these with other sterling qualities which Mr. French possesses in good measure, make him the ablest of the Commission.

The Commission will not commence their labors until Autumn, the District Attorneyship, it is understood, will not be vacated for the present, and the Fall session will be so near hand when Mr. French leaves the office, that the Governor will probably leave it to the voters to fill according to their own inclination.

Some time since ex-Gov. Rice was married in Europe to Miss Mary Powell of Worcester, but the knowledge of their marriage has until recently been limited to their own circles. The fact is now made public, and the fact, which concerns only the families immediately interested, creditable to all parties, and in the highest degree honorable to ex-Gov. Rice. Mrs. Rice has now become hopelessly insane. Insanity is hereditary in the family, and she was the only child of a man who was afflicted with the same.

General Sherman's wife is the only American to whom the Pope has ever given the renewed religious emblem—instituted more than five centuries since—the golden rose, although it has been bestowed on queens and princesses. Mrs. Sherman once collected for the Pope a "Peter's penny" of sixty thousand dollars.

THE FEDERAL of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln took place on Wednesday, in Springfield, Illinois. There was a general suspension of business in that city on the day of the funeral.

The amount of unpaid taxes in Milton for 1880 is only one hundred dollars.

In nine years, Castle Garden, New York, has received 1,605,259 immigrants.

For the Patriot.

Quincy Point Items.
The picnic of the Baptist Sunday School was held Friday last week at Pine Pasture. Over seventy-five people attended, and the day was one of great enjoyment. Refreshments were abundant and croquet and other games made the time pass very pleasantly.

The second game of base ball, between the married and single sides, was played last Saturday, and the "bachelors" were again victorious. For eight innings the married side led, but having only seven men left to play the ninth, they lost the game.

Rev. G. H. Hastings is to start for New Hampshire shortly for a vacation of three weeks.

Dr. James F. Harlow has been confined to his house for some time by a severe attack of dysentery. We are pleased to hear he is rapidly improving.

Capt. Schuyler Penney sailed for Turkey's Island last Thursday.

During the small Wednesday afternoon, the schooner J. W. Woodruff, lying at Patch's wharf, parted the bow line, and as she swung away from the wharf the main top-mast rigging caught on the coal stage and carried away the top-mast and a large portion of the stowage.

Cheaper Light! Better Light!
A number of prominent business men of Quincy have come to the conclusion that the necessity of the day is cheaper gas, for purposes of public and private illumination, heating, cooking, soldering, etc. It may be news to a majority of our citizens to learn that quite a number of cities and towns throughout the country are using thousands of gas stoves, as they afford better cooking, greater economy and positive safety. All these blessings may be secured with gas at $3.00 per thousand cubic feet, or less. With this end in view the gentlemen above referred to have associated with them a thoroughly practical man, who gives assurance of a fair profit on the investment—the capital stock being placed at twenty thousand dollars.

We sincerely hope that our citizens will take hold of this matter in earnest, as artificial light and heat are two of our greatest necessities. The price, we understand, is not to exceed three dollars per thousand cubic feet, with a much lower price to those who use the gas as fuel.

On Monday evening quite a large number of our most enterprising citizens met, and after discussing the feasibility of the project, concluded to call a meeting at an early day, for the purpose of giving a large number of people an opportunity to take part in the enterprise, and also to give them a chance to subscribe to the capital stock.

As this is a matter in which we are all deeply interested, there will undoubtedly be a full attendance. Everybody should go prepared to do whatever they can to bring this matter to a speedy and successful issue. We learn that it is the intention of the new company to buy the old works, if satisfactory arrangements can be made.

Brain-tree Chips.
Last week on Thursday the South Congregational Sabbath School enjoyed their annual picnic at Nantasket. All had a good time.

Mr. Solon David has moved from his shop on Central street, and is now at the big shop near the South depot, where he intends to do a large amount of work for the firm of T. A. Whicker & Co. of Quincy.

Dr. Traflet has sold his drug and apothecary business, to Mr. A. R. Dickinson, from Auburn, Maine.

Mr. Reed, from Holbrook, has taken the harbor shop on Pearl street, and intends to run it in first class style.

On Thursday of this week, the M. E. Sabbath School had their annual good time at Nantasket.

During the showers on Thursday, hail stones fell in the southeast part of the town large enough to break glass. Several panes of glass in a number of houses in that vicinity were broken.

Hull Yacht Club.
A regatta of the Hull Yacht Club will take place to-day at 3 o'clock P. M. A. Baird's house has been placed off the shore, and yachts in several classes will leave it on the starboard, thence to a white flag off Pettuck's Island, leaving it on the starboard to Hull.

The Quincy Yacht Club know when to go for a good time. That's why the "greys" are always to be found in the vicinity of the Linden when there is a picnic going on.

Mr. Winter and wife are occupying one of Messrs' cottages for the season. A party of young ladies from Quincy are enjoying themselves at Mr. Newcomb's cottage, and have as guests Mr. Isaac Holt and wife.

Smith's Cottage is to be a party from Hyde Park, who will occupy it for the balance of the season.

Atlantic.
Although Neponset bridge is not generally admired, it seems on pleasant evenings, to be an attractive place for many young men of Neponset and Atlantic, who congregate in the foot-path, and by their actions, make it very disagreeable to ladies and others who may have occasion to pass by; in fact, it is often necessary for one to travel in the roadway of the bridge in order to avoid being insulted.

On Saturday nights, especially, officers Hunt and Richardson find it no easy task to maintain order.

Last Saturday night, Officer Hunt was obliged to make an arrest, and it is said to have had a wholesome effect, for since then no complaints have been made.

A new house is soon to be built on Billing's street, by Mr. Cephas Drew; and one on monthly on Square street for Mr. Austin Waterhouse.

The new house built for Mr. T. F. Hinckley is nearly completed, and adds another fine building to our village.

A large force of men are now at work on Moon Island.

The usual monthly drill of the J. Q. A. Chemical Engine Company was held on Tuesday evening.

The felt mill in this place is very busy, manufacturing horse blankets for next winter's use.

Mr. T. Frank Hinckley arrived last Monday from a business trip to Paris.

East Milton Items.
Mr. John Newcomb and Mr. Albert A. Brackett with their families have gone to Hough's Neck to spend the rest of the season in the Whicker Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. C. Breck left Tuesday for a ten days' trip to Bar Harbor.

One of our young men, Mr. Andrew Magee, has left us for a short visit to Nantasket for the purpose of recruiting his health.

More excursion conveyances have passed through our quiet little village this week than in any previous week this season.

The annual picnic of the East Milton Sunday School took place last Thursday at Downer Landing.

Excursion of the F. F. F's.
On Wednesday of this week the F. F. F's Association, otherwise known as the Class of '77, went on their fourth annual excursion. The destination was the old historic town of Plymouth, and the large, safe and well-managed steam tug, the "William Woolley," of Boston, conveyed the party.

Eight o'clock in the morning was the hour for the start, but the dreary weather and the advice of older heads, were against them, (for they all said it was to be a rainy day), and it was 8.30 before the excursionists left the wharf at Quincy Point. It was then sprinkling quite hard, and continued so to about 10, after which the day was all that could be wished for, although Quincy was visited in the afternoon by a terrible storm.

The excursionists were met by G. I. Aldrich (Miss E. L. Holbrook), who was assistant teacher at the High School when the class of '77 graduated; Mr. G. I. Aldrich, superintendent of the schools of Canton and Milton; representatives of every class, with one exception, that have graduated from the High School since 1875, and other invited guests.

Many points of interest were passed. First Nantasket and Hull, with their numerous cottages and large hotels, were in view; then Port Warren, the old party view, and Nantasket; then another view of Nantasket from the ocean side, and the shores of Colchester and Scituate, lined with the cottages of summer residents. Minot's Ledge Light also received its share of attention, for the F. F. F's will always remember how handsomely they were entertained there last year by Keeper Martin. Next came the shores of Marshfield and Duxbury, then the Standish Monument in Duxbury, the Gurnet Point and Lights, and finally quaint Plymouth itself. Luckily a day had been taken for the excursion so that the entrance to the harbor would be at nearly high water, for Plymouth has a very poor harbor and cannot be safely entered at low water.

We reached Plymouth at one o'clock, and, having previously taken dinner on board the boat, were prepared to see the numerous attractions offered, and as no rain had fallen during the day in Plymouth, the occasion was delightfully enjoyed. Leaving the wharf we came immediately to the historic "Plymouth Rock," which is protected by a high iron fence, and covered by a granite canopy, in which are the remains of eight or ten Pilgrims. Continuing on we passed up Leyden street, and thence to Burial Hill Cemetery, which is the oldest in the town, and has grave stones dating back over 200 years. Here we saw the graves and monuments of Gov. Bradford and Cushman.

Leaving the cemetery we visited the County Court House, where the party were shown the original records and legal documents, bearing the signatures of the ancient settlers. The jail was also visited, and here the excursionists were shown about the premises by the obliging turnkey, Mr. C. T. Bailey, a gentleman well known to the citizens of Quincy. Some of the party visited the new and beautiful Standish Monument in Milton, a short distance from the shore, and yachts in several classes will leave it on the starboard, thence to a white flag off Pettuck's Island, leaving it on the starboard to Hull.

Letter from the Mountains.
JACKSON, N. H., July 19, 1882.
To the Publishers of the Patriot:
The pleasant recollections and incomparable attractions of a last summer's visit to this beautiful spot, were so beneficial to my family, that I have felt compelled to again renew them; so, here we are, at one of the most beautiful spots to be found in all the White Mountain region. Jackson, N. H., is a beautiful town, with its magnificent views of Adams, Black, Double-Head, Tia, Thorn, Mount, Iron, Giant Stairs and Copp's Mountains, and its charming walks and drives to Artists' Falls, Artists' Retreat, Bartlett Boulder, Crystal Cascade, Carver Notch, Cathedral Ledge, Diana's Bath, Flume, Fernald Farm, Glen Falls, Goodrich Falls, Jackson Falls, Lake Umbagog, Mirror Lake, North Conway, Pleasant Valley, Sunset Hill, Wenewetah Cascade, Wildwood Cascade, (all within an hour's drive), and its commodious and home-like hotels and its summer society, all tend to make it one of the loveliest spots for a season of rest and pleasure to be found anywhere in New England.

The Glen in which Jackson is situated is at the base of the above named mountains, and is a little more than a mile in length and less than a mile in width. The four hotels, with their half a dozen or more of boarders, are the Jackson Falls House, Eagle Mountain, Thorn Mountain and Glen Hotel. The Glen Hotel, at which we are stopping, stands on a natural terrace at the base of Iron Mountain, some ten or twelve feet above the level of the Glen, and a few rods to the north of Sunset Hill. It is a very large and commodious house with ample accommodations for its large and increasing number of summer boarders; and is presided over by Mr. S. M. Thompson, the prince of landlords, who spares no trouble or expense in looking after the comforts of his guests.

The site of the house is peculiarly fortunate, and has no equal in the whole of New England, embracing as it does the most striking mountain views from every side and from every point of view. Here you find nature adorns herself with her richest and most attractive robes; and for a quiet, cool retreat, for those who do not care to mingle with the excitement of the more fashionable summer resorts, but prefers rest and quiet, with comfortable accommodations and wholesome fare, most certainly Jackson has undeniable attractions and beauties, that are destined to become more and more popular as they become known.

If you are accustomed to riding in the steam cars day after day, you can hardly realize the transformation until you have arrived at Glen station and experienced the joys of riding on the top of that old-fashioned stage coach. With a shout from the driver, (the pioneer of mountain stage drivers, Col. Stillings,) whoa! there! Charley, and with a crack of the whip, comes the stage, a half-mile, roadway on the side of the mountain, all unite their hoarse voices, and away goes the coach, leaving the swinging and rocking motion, so thoroughly enjoyed by all, especially the boys, and as the ponderous vehicle skims along the country road; rushes down the hills, swaying around the curves, and leaving the hills behind, deriving scenes before the eye; while to the right, to the left, front and rear, stretches landscapes once seen, never to be forgotten. Such a ride as this taken in the gentle breezes of a July morning, with the cool breezes of the morning, and leaf and flower, all unite their hoarse voices, and away goes the coach, leaving the swinging and rocking motion, so thoroughly enjoyed by all, especially the boys, and as the ponderous vehicle skims along the country road; rushes down the hills, swaying around the curves, and leaving the hills behind, deriving scenes before the eye; while to the right, to the left, front and rear, stretches landscapes once seen, never to be forgotten. For the Patriot.

Timidity versus Pluck.

A practical illustration of these two qualities is exhibited by the two political aspirants in the now famous Second District. The indecision displayed by Pluck creates many doubts, while Timidity stands up so boldly, his position is unquestioned. Timidity appears ready to accept any high office; Pluck declines, on only one, Timidity keeps people in suspense; Pluck states right where he is to be found. Timidity is the defensive; Pluck is aggressive. Timidity holds out his hands to receive; Pluck reaches forth to secure. Timidity breeds the result; Pluck achieves it from it. Timidity wants something thrown to him; Pluck is willing to do after it. Timidity embarrases his friends; Pluck shows his an open course. Timidity throws the burden on his associates; Pluck helps his to shoulder it. Timidity wishes to occupy a vacant place; Pluck sits himself down in it. Timidity wavers; Pluck stands firm. Timidity hesitates (and is lost); Pluck rushes straight ahead—and will be successful, for a majority of the voters of the Second District admire his manly course.

SATURDAY, JULY 29, 1892.

Immortelle.

When the fair young Spring, with her tooth of grace,

Decked the woodland ways all in beautiful green,

How then I found, woodland sweet and pink,

Lovelier blooms than the eye had ever seen.

But in Autumn days, when the Immortelle,

And the buds I sought, where they grew of old,

But my search was vain, no spring buds I found.

Wooden sweet and pink in the autumn glow,

Hearts have their spring-time in hope's rose-gold glow.

And the buds of hope's heart will ever hold true,

But they fade away, ne'er to come again.

No young hopes of Spring in life's Fall appear.

Shall we count them wise who, when rosebuds die,

With regretful tears will so dim their eyes?

That they scarcely see Immortelle buds bloom,

Like a vision of light in a lonely maze?

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Shall we count them wise who, when young hopes die,

Better than Gold.
Better than grandeur, better than gold,
Than riches and titles thousand fold,
Is a healthy body, a mind at ease,

A heart that can feel for a neighbor's woe,
And share his joys with a gentle glow;
With sympathies large enough to enfold
All men as brothers, is better than gold.

The Quincy Patriot. SUPPLEMENT.

SAURDAY, AUG. 19, 1882.

Gov. Long on Reform.

Below will be found a copy of a letter sent to Gov. John D. Long, by a committee composed of members of the Quincy and Wollaston Reform Associations whose duty it was to ascertain the views of candidates for the congressional nomination in the Second District, with reference to civil-service reform. Also, Gov. Long's reply.

Box JOHN D. LONG.

Dear Sir:—The civil service reform associations of Quincy and Wollaston, believing that a reform in the civil service has now become so vital a question that public men can properly be expected to hold and to express definite opinions as to the measures best adapted to secure this end, have appointed the undersigned a joint committee to ask candidates for Congress from the 2d district for a statement of their views on this subject. We are aware that a due regard for the dignity of your present office prevents you from making an aggressive personal contest to obtain the nomination of the Republican convention of this district; but, knowing it to be your declared intention to accept the nomination if tendered you, and that many of your friends in this district are anxious that you should represent them in Congress, and believing it not impossible for a public man to receive a nomination which he has not actively worked to secure, we consider you a candidate, and therefore address you this letter.

Those whom we represent are convinced that appointments of officers employed in the routine business of the government should be based on fitness as ascertained by some practical test, such as that furnished by competitive examinations, with trial on probation;
the office-holders should be secure in the tenure of their positions so long as they satisfactorily perform their duties, removal only being made for good cause, openly declared and recorded, and that the establishment of these principles can only be insured by suitable legislation. Having these convictions, those for whom we speak wish to know, in order to enable them to vote wisely, the opinions of candidates on this subject. We are aware that, in an article published in the Civil Service Record, you have expressed your sympathy with reformers in desiring the overthrow of the system which treats public offices as merit patronage. But the degree of interest in this question would seem to justify a request for a clear statement of your views regarding the best mode of attaining the end desired, in view of the fact that none of the voters of this district may be left in any doubt as to your position.

We therefore respectfully ask for an expression of your opinions as to the mode in which appointments to the various positions in the civil service should be made, and as to what considerations should govern the tenure of office. We would also respectfully inquire whether you would favor such legislation as would protect incumbent officers from the fear of removal for neglecting to comply with demand for a contribution, or assessment upon salaries, for political purposes, by forbidding any such demand upon them by whomsoever made.

We are yours respectfully.

Gov. Long's Reply.

HINGHAM, Aug. 1, 1882.

F. A. CLAFLIN, Esq., Secretary, &c.

Dear Sir:—My views upon the civil service, as well as my political position, have already long ago been published by me, remaining unchanged from the first; and, while I am happy to answer any communication such as you have presented me, I have nothing to add and no modification to make in respect to either topic, and I have now no desire to put myself further before the public in relation thereto. Indeed, I cannot state more emphatically than in my article in the Civil Service Record of December, 1881, my conviction of the necessity of legislation which shall separate the routine civil service from party politics, and which shall provide by law for some such competitive or other system as will throw the clerical and mechanical work of our great public departments open to general competition, giving it to those who are most meritorious and most competent to do it, with trial on probation, and promotion when deserved. Recommendations to office are entirely proper, and, indeed, under the present system,
are the only means open to an honest applicant, but they afford no sufficient comparative test of fitness. The Pendleton or Eaton bill, which, as concerns methods of appointment in large departments, now seems to me the step to take, wisely refrains from providing for fixing of tenure. Tenure of office will practically rest on merit and competency if the original entry into the service is founded on merit and competency. The reform is one which is not only in the line of the republican doctrine of equal rights, but it has become, through the immense increase of the business of the government, just as necessary as that which is about to transfer from Congress to the courts, the swarms of claims which accumulate against the United States, or the congressional election cases which, as all agree, should go to another tribunal.
It is a reform also due, not only to the general interest, but in the interest of the deserving employees who are now in the service, and who, if not protected by law, will "have to go" with the next change of party supremacy. In my judgment its necessity is so plain that it has gone beyond argument, and only waits till inertia and prejudice shall give way to its enactment.

As to political assessments, enforced on penalty of removal, upon official salaries, it is only expressing the common sentiment to say that they should be prohibited as vicious and unjust.
An office holder paying such a tax might well claim that it is in the nature of a consideration, and imposes a reciprocal obligation upon the government to secure him the office. This leads not only logically, but practically, to making public office an object of bargain and sale; and that is something the traditional American will not endure if he knows it.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) JOHN D. LONG.

Letter from "X. Y. Z."

Uncle Joe's Attack on Gov. Long.

QUINCY, Aug. 15th, 1882.

To the Publishers of the Patriot:

As the PATRIOT of August 5th contained no communication from Uncle Joe, I had supposed that the correspondence between that gentleman and myself had come to an end. Indeed I had stated my belief that a further continuance of it on my part could scarcely be of interest to your readers. But after reading Uncle Joe's letter in your last number I felt that it might be worth while to change my purpose and take up my pen one more; for I noticed with satisfaction that he had given up the abuse, innuendo and unfounded statements of which his former letters had been largely made up, and had come down to stating facts and arguing from them. This gratifying change is surely worth the extra week's reflection which seems to have produced it.

The first point to be noticed is the new departure which the controversy has taken. The bone of contention hitherto has been Mr. Harris' position in reference to the reform of the civil service; reformers have asserted that he did not fairly represent the declared sentiments of his party, not only because he endorsed the Worthington appointment, but because he has done nothing during his long term in Congress to advance the reform, and has declared his disapproval of the only effective method of bringing it about,— the establishment of open, competitive examinations. The discussion has been as to the fitness of Mr. Harris to represent the district; and when Uncle Joe turns the controversy to the merits of Gov. Long, and devotes himself to an attempt to show that he should be as objectionable on reform grounds as Mr.
Harris, it amounts to an admission of the force of the unanswered objections which reformers have made to the latter gentleman.

But I am perfectly willing to meet the issue thus raised, and I do distinctly seek "to pit Gov. Long against Mr.
Harris on the reform issue." The reformers of this district—to say nothing of other citizens—unquestionably would regard the Governor as an immense improvement over Mr. Harris. Let us examine the reasons which Uncle Joe advances against this preference.

There are two fundamental misapprehensions as to civil service reform.
Mr. Editor, which seem to be the basis of this attempt to impugn Gov. Long's standing as a reformer. The first of these is really inexcusable; and I scarcely know whether to feel discouraged at having to answer one who has not taken the pains to understand the object of a reform before undertaking to write about it, or encouraged with the hope that as his opposition seems to rest on lack of information he may become a reformer himself on acquiring a better knowledge of the ends in view.
—yes, even one of the "high-shouldered Quincy association variety." Uncle Joe challenges Gov. Long's claim to the support of reformers on the ground that he has been an office-seeker. Now this does not come very appropriately.
Mr. Editor, from a supporter of the Hon. B. W. Harris, who has stuck to his seat in Congress as tenaciously as the old man of the sea clung around the neck of the unfortunate Sinbad, and has hitherto resisted successfully all efforts to shake him off. But the statement, if true, is beside the point, and has no bearing on civil service reform. The object of this reform is not to reconstruct human nature and make everybody act properly in political matters; on the contrary, the end is a particular and definite one, viz., the overthrow of the system which treats appointive offices as party spoils, to be filled with workers. It seeks no such absurdity as a general change in regard to elective offices; they must stay as they are, to be filled by the people as they may see fit. Therefore there is no reason why one who seeks an elective office for himself, by honest means, should not be in favor of the legislation which civil service reformers desire, and receive their hearty support. And since the recent correspondence between Gov. Long and the committee of the Quincy and Wollaston associations there is no doubt in the public mind of the Governor's support, not only of the general objects of the reform, but of the specific measures proposed for attaining them. As for the charge that he himself was once of that persuasion, and that he could not stomach Grant in 1872, it is scarcely worth spending ink upon; John D. Long is a good enough Republican for the voters of that party or he would not now be serving his third term as Governor. The antiquated facts which Uncle Joe has thought it worth while to dig up cannot hurt him.

The second point which Uncle Joe makes against the Governor is based upon another mis-understanding, more excusable, to be sure, than the first one, as to the position of reformers. He says that the Governor does not deserve support on the "reform issue" because he has endorsed applicants for office;
and, moreover, members of the Quincy
C. S. R. Association need to "reform themselves" because they have lately done the same thing. I am glad that Uncle Joe "knows this to be a fact, beyond contradiction," for some of his other "facts" about the members of that organization seem to have been of such an intangible and airy texture that they could not stand the rude shock of denial. But I readily accept his present statement. Uncle Joe says that such reformers are "guilty of that which my alphabetical friend so persistently and loudly condemns in others;"
no, Uncle Joe, you mistake, your alphabetical friend wishes to overthrow by law the system which distributes offices on recommendations, whether of public men or private citizens, but he has never condemned the practice of giving recommendations while the present system lasts. Reformers believe that the great majority of Congressmen devote too much time to looking after the offices and too little to legislation; but as long as the spoils system remains in force offices will be distributed according to influence, and if good men will not get fit men put into office it will merely result in unscrupulous men putting in their unscrupulous adherents. The system is bad; but that does not make it necessary to refuse to have anything to do with it, for it cannot be put down by individual efforts but only by legislation. Recommendations to office, when they are based on a belief of the applicant's fitness for the position he seeks, are at present, as the Governor pointed out in his recent letter, not only proper but are "the only means open to an honest applicant." Although the Governor has doubtless during his public career recommended many applicants for office, he has stated that he is in favor of such legislation as would take from him and other public men all power over subordinate appointments; this is all that reformers want, and there is no inconsistency about the position.

As to the array of facts about custom house politics, with which Uncle Joe seems to have such an intimate acquaintance, I doubt whether they will prove at the present time of much interest to the public. I will merely say that it seems to me that when a man acts rightly, as Gov. Long did when he refused to recommend Mr. Worthington, his motives are usually taken for granted, and I doubt whether in this instance the Governor confided his motives to Uncle Joe. Appearing at a dinner and saying a few civil words can scarcely be said to put a new complexion on the matter.

But I have already trespassed enough, Mr. Editor, upon your space and the patience of your readers. Uncle Joe's vain attack upon the Governor will merely recoil on himself. It is time that the long political career of Mr. Harris, barren of any good achievements as it has been, should come to a close; his vote on the River and Harbor bill is alone enough to condemn him, yet that is only the last of a long series of objectionable acts. He stands for the old, the unprogressive; no good change will come through him. The old barnacles must be scraped off and the new, liberal blood of the Republican party must come to the front in Congress at once, or the next Presidential election is lost. Let the people of this district do their part by electing a man who moves forward with the age.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 2, 1882.

The New Quincy Directory.

This valuable and interesting book has been printed, and is now in the hands of the binders, and will be ready for delivery probably on Wednesday next. It contains 150 octavo pages, and is devoted exclusively to the town of Quincy.

In it will be found the names of all the streets in town, both public and private, and where they are located. Also, the hills, hummocks, islands, streams, bridges, wharves, halls, public buildings, and places of interest, railroad stations, post offices and cemeteries. A general directory, giving the names of every male person over twenty years of age in Quincy on the first day of May. Also, all widows, and ladies having any particular occupation. Containing a list of over 3700 names.

Also, a general business directory of the town, each branch classified and arranged for the convenience of the public; town officers, public schools and teachers, fire department, county and town officers, corporations, religious and charitable societies and associations; temperance, political and social societies; advertising cards from nearly all the principal business firms in the town.

The work is published at a very low price, so that all the citizens of the town can avail themselves of a copy. It will be delivered in town, or sent by mail to any part of the United States, postage prepaid, on receipt of the price, 60 cents.

Many citizens who have left Quincy and gone abroad, will find much in its pages that will be of great interest to them; bringing to memory many old associations and friends. Any orders received at the PATRIOT OFFICE will meet with prompt attention. Green & Prescott, publishers.

New Church.

We are able to announce this week that the contract for a new Unitarian Church, on the site of the old one in Quincy, has been awarded to Mr. Wm. Parker. The stone work will be placed in charge of Menhick Brothers, who have already commenced excavating for the same. The building and furnishing will cost about $12,000, and will occupy nearly the whole site.

The society will hold services in the Quincy Reform Club Hall during the time the new church is being built, commencing to-morrow, at 10:30 A. M., followed by the Sunday School. The new pastor, Rev. R. T. Sawyer of Milford, has arrived, and will commence his labors with them at the hall. The parsonage has been newly papered and painted by Mr. James A. Neale, for the occupancy of the pastor and his family. We learn that the old church will be open on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, to allow all who have books and cushions an opportunity to remove them. It is hoped that all who are willing to assist in moving the parish property will also be present.

ACCIDENT. Mr. Ford, of North Weymouth, met with an accident on Washington street, on Thursday. As he was proceeding down Bent's hill, with his farm wagon loaded with hay, he was forced out of his seat by a passing team, and his load being a little too heavy, and the road very rough, over it went, landing his cabage on the sidewalk. Fortunately no serious result followed, but we may expect other and more serious accidents before another spring.

It is unfortunate that the Road Commissioners will persist in building the crown of the road so high. It is one of the failings of the new piece of road built last spring at Quincy Point, and the repaired road has been in a worst condition this summer, than on any previous summer for twenty years. If we are rightly informed.

SEIZURE. Officers Hanson, Faxon, Locke and Turner raided the saloon kept by John McGowan, on Wednesday last, and seized sixty-eight bottles of lager beer and one bottle of champagne. The officers informed us that McGowan had a trap under his bar through which he dropped his bottles of hard liquor on to a pile of stones in the cellar, and all the officers could get was a smell.

The saloon kept by Charles F. Jones, on the corner of Granite and Water streets, was visited by the officers, but no intoxicating liquors were found.

SURPRISE. Mr. Charles N. Hunt, of Atlantic, was quite pleasantly surprised by his children and friends on Wednesday evening, the occasion being the birthday celebration of that gentleman. His children presented him with a handsome easy chair, in which he might spend his leisure hours in perfect comfort. He was also made the recipient of a few other gifts. An excellent supper was spread, around which the party gathered, and a general good time was enjoyed.

FALL FROM A WAGON. Mr. Chas. Baker, of Scituate, while driving from Boston to his home, on Wednesday afternoon, fell asleep on his wagon, and, losing his balance, fell from the wagon and frightened his horses, causing them to run away. Baker was dragged a considerable distance, and was quite severely injured. Dr. Sals attended him. The accident occurred on Hancock street near Mr. Peter Butler's.

HANDSOME TESTIMONIAL. The friends of Miss Maggie Stewart, of the town, who returned to Scotland recently, contributed the handsome testimonial of $500, a testimonial of their respect for her. Mr. Peter Dackers planned and managed the whole affair and a general good time was enjoyed.

PLEASANT TIME. Last Wednesday, Misses Lizzie M. Newcomb, Alice Hensley, Mabel Hodges, Marcia Dickey, Ella Ordway, and Carrie Blake enjoyed the day at Nantasket beach. The young ladies pronounced it one of the most enjoyable trips of the season.

A DEADLY DEED. At Bedford, Mich., last Sunday, a young married woman, named Mrs. Charles Hovey, bound her 5-year-old child to herself, then plunged her own head and that of her child in a wash tub, filled with water. Both were drowned.

CONVENTION. The Democratic State Convention will be held at Music Hall, Boston, on Tuesday, Sept. 19. Judge Abbott will preside and there is little doubt but that Gen. Butler will be the nominee.

Brief Locals.

SCHOOLS OPEN ON MONDAY NEXT.

First Church Sunday School will reassemble Sept. 10th.

The Legion of Honor held their meeting next Tuesday evening.

Miss Florence Brooks is spending a few days with friends in Sharon.

Mr. Joseph T. French contemplates building this Fall on his fine lot at Hough's Neck.

They say that Jumbo is not an elephant but a Jersey mosquito with his wings cut off.

Mr. Charles H. Hardwick and daughter are enjoying a delightful trip at the Adirondack Mountains.

The Good Templars of this town will go to Nantasket Beach Saturday evening, on a moonlight excursion.

Mrs. C. A. Merritt and daughter returned from their pleasant trip to West Sumner, Maine, on Thursday evening.

Mr. Joseph T. Berry and family returned home yesterday from their pleasant stay of six weeks, in Sandwich Centre.

Rev. Mr. Norton has returned from his vacation; he is looking in excellent health, and will occupy his pulpit to-morrow.

To-morrow Rev. Mr. Wilson resumes his labors in his church. He has been enjoying a pleasant vacation the past four weeks.

Mr. J. F. Nightingale and family, Mr. Wm. F. Thomas and family, have been enjoying the past two weeks at Nantasket Beach.

Senator Merritt, from Camden, N. J., with his two smart, interesting children, have been visiting among friends in this town.

Rumors say that the twenty-acre farm that the town purchased to put the new almshouse on, is about to be purchased and a large lunatic asylum to be placed thereon.

Fruit and flowers for the Boston hospitals may be sent, on Wednesday afternoon and evening of next week, to the house of Mr. Rufus Foster, Chestnut street.

Mr. E. A. Spear, 2nd, has taken the agency for the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine. He would be pleased to have those who contemplate buying a machine, call and examine the "New No. 8."

All who are desirous of securing a relic of antiquity should be present on Tuesday, the 12th inst., at the auction of the old almshouse. The building is in good repair, and it is said would make a good double house.

A party of the young ladies of this town had a delightful sail on the "Empire State" on Tuesday. Next week is the last of the season, and those who are desirous of enjoying a pleasant sail should make their plans at once.

Mr. Samuel B. Pope, eighty-three years of age, has this week been appointed field driver by the Selectmen. He is probably the oldest person in this State holding such an office. Mr. Pope is an uncommonly smart man of his age, and will attend to his duties with a will and an energy, and stray cattle will be taken care of.

Mr. James W. Tinkham, engineer at McKenzie & Pearson's polishing works, on Cambridge street, had his left hand badly burned by steam on Thursday forenoon, while cleaning out one of the fuses of his engine. He was immediately removed to Durgin's drug store, where a soothing remedy was applied, but the skin peeled off quite badly.

Miss Sarah O. Babcock, who has been appointed Principal of the Quincy School, received the rudiments of her education in the old Willard School in this town. She was further educated and taught in Boston, until she went to Chicago, where for fifteen years she has been Principal of large schools. She is earnest in her work, has a true love for the profession, and we are fortunate in securing a teacher of such wide experience.

Mr. Lawrence Garrity, while passing through his yard Tuesday, took up an axe and attempted to chop a stick of wood; the axe caught on a clothes line and glanced back against the side of Mr. Garrity's head, inflicting a painful wound. He crawled to the house and then fainted. It was some little time before he recovered enough to explain how the accident happened.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS. A caucus of the Democrats of the South District was held in Cahill's Hall on Thursday evening, Aug. 31st. W. G. A. Pattee was chosen Chairman and Geo. Cahill, secretary. The following District Committee was chosen: Wm. G. A. Pattee, Geo. Cahill, John H. Dee, John A. Green, E. E. Fellows, Wm. Parker, John Chamberlain, James E. Maxim, Timothy Deasy, Cornelius Moynihan, Geo. H. Hobart, Chas. White and John J. Sullivan.

ORGANIZED. A new hose company has been formed, to manage and take care of the new horse hose carriage, which is located at the steamer's house, on School street. Four of the company are required to sleep in the house each night. On Monday evening the Company organized by the election of the following officers:

Foreman, Joseph M. Pierce. First Assistant, Edward Glenn. Second Assistant, William Gavin. Clerk, John T. Larkin. Azenes, John P. Williams and James Elicock. Steward, Thomas H. Conlan.

RE-ORGANIZED. The Citizens' Gas Light Company was reorganized on Wednesday evening and the following officers chosen:

President, Wm. G. Sheen. Treasurer, Chas. A. Howard. Secretary, Wm. G. Sheen and John B. Rice. Then, King, Jr., John O. Holden, George Saville, E. B. Pratt, J. Henry Emery, Wm. A. Hodges, Chas. A. Howard.

The new gas company voted to reduce the price of gas from five mills to three mills per foot; to take effect on and after September first.

Congress appropriated $35,000, to pay the bills connected with President Garfield's sickness. Of this amount Dr. Bliss claims $25,000 and Dr. Reyburn $8,500, leaving but $1,500 for Agnew Hamilton and the rest.

For the Patriot.

Quincy Point Items.

Friday evening of last week, the members of the Christian Union Church were greatly surprised to hear from their pastor, Rev. G. H. Hastings, that he had decided to leave them and accept a call to preach in a Methodist Church at Brighton, Michigan. As the gentleman had been expected to remain until next April, and as most everybody was satisfied with his preaching, and approved of him, the news was a great disappointment. The principal reason for the change we understand to be a more lucrative position prospectively, and a hope to show larger results from his labors. The parish committee took no action in the premises, merely voting to leave the matter open until last night, in hopes the pastor would change his mind and remain. From all appearances, the gentleman has positively decided not to remain, and will leave at once for his new field. We hear the opinion very generally expressed, that by going so soon, and giving so short a notice of his intentions, Mr. H. has not done just as he would like to be done by; in other words, if he had been notified to quit in a week, he would have considered it rather unfair treatment. In justice to him, we will say he did not agree to stay until next April, but that did not relieve him of the duty of remaining with his people until they had had a reasonable time to procure another pastor. Possessing so many genial qualities, and being a faithful worker, the vacancy caused by his resignation will be hard to fill. We wish him success wherever he may be stationed.

The Vulture Engine Company held a meeting Monday evening, and adopted a uniform consisting of white flannel shirt, corded with cardinal, with V. 4 on the front; black belts, with name and number of the engine, and fatigue cap similar to the Boston regulation style. Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the company met at Point Holes and practiced mowing. We hope to see the members practice playing the engine, in order to be proficient when the prize pipe is played for. The monthly meeting will be held Tuesday evening of next week, instead of Monday.

We are pleased to learn that Miss K. A. Raycroft has re-considered her determination to go to Somerville to teach, and will remain at the Washington School, where her services have been valued for so long a time.

The first alarm of fire from box 46, Tuesday morning, struck correctly here. When the second alarm came in, the Vulture was started and made good time to West Quincy, but its services were not needed.

Mr. Frank Nott died very suddenly, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, of hemorrhage. He was well known, among the firemen especially, having been a member of the West Quincy engine company for a number of years. He will be buried to-day.

Rev. George B. Lawton and party, who have been camping out for the past two weeks, in Pine Pasture, at the Neck, broke camp Wednesday and returned to their homes, having had a delightful time. During the last day a large number of friends visited the camp, and for the past fortnight callers have been numerous. The reverend gentleman was much pleased to be so well received.

Mr. and Mrs. John Feiden attended the camp-meeting at Epping, N. H., this week.

Miss Helen Slade and Miss May Cole have been spending their vacations at Harrington, Me.

Score victory No. 12 for the "Amy," a third prize at the regatta off Marblehead last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Baxter have returned from their visit to Poland Springs.

GREENLEAF STREET SCHOOL. Quincy is noted for her excellent school system; not alone is this excellence found in the public schools, but in the boasted of a long established private school, well known as the Greenleaf Street, which is designed for boys and girls between the ages of four and fifteen. The school department under Miss Josephine Wright, and is somewhat on the Kindergarten plan. The higher is under Miss Dora A. French, and all branches of English, French, music, drawing, etc., are thoroughly taught. Under the supervision of these teachers, pupils are fitted for Adams Academy. The fall term begins September 11th.

The new station of the Signal Service on Pike's Peak is to be of stone, forty-four by twenty-nine feet in size. It will contain an office, reception room, dining-room, kitchen and two bed rooms. The work of construction will not be easy for everything which goes into the building, except the stone, must be "packed" up the trail, a distance of fifteen miles, covering a rise of 8000 feet. The station will cost about $4000.

Clay which can be worked into mineral paint has been found in Middleboro. A bed of it is on the Town Farm, and Mr. M. J. Leach has agreed with the selectmen to work it on shares for twenty years. The almshouse is being painted with this natural coloring mixed with oil and glue, the latter being added to give it holding quality over a coat of whitewash.—Old Colony Memorial.

Last Monday is noted as the greatest peach day ever known in Boston, 26,000 baskets, or fifty car loads of this fruit were handled, and all disposed of at fair prices before night. The average price was about one dollar per basket. One firm disposed of eleven car-loads.

The estate of the late Moses C. Beal, Randolph, over whose will there was a contest in the Norfolk probate court, last winter, has been inventoried at $44,370.61.

A kite containing nearly 250 square feet of surface was down at Brockton, N. Y., the other day. It shot into the air like a balloon to a height of a mile, and had to be hauled down by a pulley and team.

Parties at Pensacola have sent to Germany for two hundred servant girls, to be held under a year's contract with the privilege to employers, of two years.

A wonderful snow and ice cavern has been discovered on Mt. Tecumseh, in Thornton, N. H., the existence of which has heretofore been unknown to men living within two miles of the place.

Fire Department Items.

CHIEF HALL HAS RETURNED FROM HIS VACATION, AND SATURDAY HE HAD THE STEAMER OUT TO TRAIN THE HORSES.

While the fire was lighted, the engine put to draft and four good streams were thrown at one time.

The committee has purchased of John Q. A. Field a fine horse for the hose carriage.

The new ladder truck has gone into the paint shop and will probably be finished and ready for business in three weeks.

While the use made of the steamer at the fire Tuesday morning proved very unsatisfactory to many citizens, no one can find a word of fault with the engine itself, for when given a chance, it proved its capability to do what was to be expected of it. With plenty of water close at hand, it is not the fault of the engine that it is placed at a very poor supply, neither can it raise steam quickly, unless one lights the fire under the boiler. If some one tries to drive it up a steep hill rather than the level road and comes near smashing it, the steamer can't help it and yet you would think to hear the remarks made at Tuesday morning's fire, that the engine was to blame and was a failure.

The fact is there is no better piece of fire apparatus in existence than Quincy's steam fire engine, and if properly handled it will do anything any reasonable man can ask for. This was its first call into actual service and many allowances for the way it was used should be made on that account. Probably a great improvement will be shown in time.

The Board of Engineers will hold a meeting Tuesday evening and will probably decide what day the annual fall parade will take place.

The irregular manner in which the second alarm from Box 46 struck Tuesday morning, was due to the improper way some person used the lever. Properly should be in mind that simply pulling the lever down once is all that is required, and any other way will cause confusion.

Every piece of apparatus in town and the Hydrant of Milton was at the fire in West Quincy, Tuesday morning.

The following criminal cases have been before the District Court this week:

John Kilfoley, of Weymouth, for malicious mischief. The defendant was discharged for want of evidence.

Cornelius Lynch, of Holbrook, for being drunk. Fined $1 and costs.

Patrick Smith, of Weymouth, for being drunk. Fined $1 and costs; for non-payment he was committed to the House of Correction.

James J. Hoye, of Randolph, for being drunk. Fined $1 and costs; for non-payment he was committed.

Thomas F. Cary of Randolph, for a second drunk. Sent to the House of Correction for two months.

William Roberts of Milton, for an assault. Discharged for want of evidence.

James Hay, Jr., Thomas Fallon, Larry Donahue, and John Welch, Jr., four young men from Milton were before the Court yesterday morning for disturbing the peace. The youths have been made for lighting their cigarettes.

On Wednesday evening a large party from Boston Highlands and elsewhere, friends of Capt. Charles N. Hunt, our efficient police officer, surprised him by a visit, and a gift of an elegant reclining chair.

The J. Q. A. Chemical Engine Company responded to the alarm from Box 46, on Tuesday morning, and, as usual, made good time in reaching the fire, where they rendered good service.

The harbor excursion of the above company proved a very enjoyable time. The fine schooner-yacht "Mystic" was chartered, and leaving Atlantic beach early Saturday evening, sailed for Hotel Neptune, off the city wharves, and remained there the night. After partaking of an early but a good breakfast on Sunday, sail was made for a "run outside." The company returned on Sunday evening, and landed at the railroad bridge, at Neponset.

Accepted the Invitation.

In answer to numerous requests to allow the use of his name in the Republican Congressional Convention in the Second District, Governor Long has written the following letter:

Hingham, Aug. 28, 1882.

Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of your letter referring to Mr. Harris' declaration of longer representation of the Second District in Congress and suggesting the use of my name at the next Republican Convention. Such an expression of confidence I highly appreciate, and am grateful for the cordial terms in which it is conveyed. I should deem the nomination, if tendered me, a great honor, and also deem it a call to public service which I should be bound, as well as happy to accept.

Very respectfully yours,

JOHN D. LONG.

A dispatch from Chicago, Aug. 30th, says, "six inches of rain has fallen all over the northwest. It is estimated that 25,000 head of sheep, horses, cows and mules, and 75 human beings, have perished. The railroad track and fifty houses at Laredo, Tex., were washed away."

A heavy snow storm raged in Leadville, Colorado, all night of Aug. 30th.

Hough's Neck.

THERE HAS BEEN SEVERAL LARGE PICNICS IN THE VICINITY OF MEAS'S THIS WEEK.

The beach season is about closing. Some six or eight families closed their houses the present week and returned home.

We learn that Mr. Chapin Thayer has just sold one of his pleasant lots, and the gentleman intends building a large and costly house on it.

Mr. Tuckerman has sold several fine lots on the Hough's Neck, recently, a Mr. Noble, from Roxbury, one of the purchasers, we are told, contemplates building a handsome cottage this fall.

The Cavanaugh family were well represented here one day recently—twenty-six of them—all under twenty-five years of age.

Mr. Joseph Veader takes great pleasure in showing visitors the life boat, and explains its workings in a very gentlemanly manner. He has many callers at his little "cottage by the sea," and is very entertaining.

Boston Correspondence.

A party of young men from the Boston Young Men Christian Union visited the Hoosac Tunnel grain elevator and docks at Charlestown last Saturday. They also visited the Steamship Iberica, lying at the wharf.

Between forty and fifty "cash boys" in the employ and through the generosity of Shepard, Norwell, & Co., on Winter street, enjoyed a sail to Nantasket last Saturday. They were treated to a good dinner and had a fine time.

To-night ends the most successful season at Oakland Gardens.

Mr. F. S. Chaffin, commences his 13th annual season at the Boston Theatre, Sept. 4th. He will produce his powerful drama entitled "The Arkansan Traveller." About 12 o'clock Sunday morning John Thompson was knocked down at corner of Elliot and Washington streets and robbed of a watch valued at $40, and an amethyst ring valued at $10. Two fugitives named Clark and Dowling were arrested, and Monday morning in Municipal Court were held in $2,000 each for trial in Superior Court.

At 11 o'clock on Sunday night Mr. W. P. Boyden of 22 Dwight street, was assailed by a gang of three men on Elliot street, and robbed of a gold stem winding watch valued at $200. The watch is of Swiss make and numbered 25,559 with monogram "W. P. B." on the front case.

Mr. Elbridge Bathfield, manager of the Eastern Railroad transfer Co., was riding on a Brighton horse car Monday forenoon, and when nearly opposite Capt. Hough's wharf, Cambridge, was seized by a party of men, who carried him to the Mass. General Hospital where he died in a few minutes.

For the Patriot.

Atlantic.

The Sunday school children of the Atlantic mission, with their parents and friends, held a well-attended picnic basket, at Squantum, on Wednesday last.

Mr. Charles R. Trickey has returned from a ten days' cruise on his yacht "Cygnus," along the coast of Maine.

The lights upon Neponset bridge have been in position for some time, and we are glad to learn that arrangements have been made for lighting them.

On Wednesday evening a large party from Boston Highlands and elsewhere, friends of Capt. Charles N. Hunt, our efficient police officer, surprised him by a visit, and a gift of an elegant reclining chair.

An Enjoyable Trip.

Mr. C. Theo. Hardwick has been spending a few weeks at Jefferson, N. H., stopping at the "Star King House." He gives a very interesting account of his visit to the "Summit House" on Mount Washington, and an encounter with a wolf; his trip to the Flume and Pool at Franconia Notch; and the magnificent scenery on the P. & O. railroad through the Notch, which is one of the most romantic routes in the country. He arrived home on Saturday last, much improved in health.

AN HONORABLE MAN. A story is told of Mr. George William Curtis that is most honorable to him. In 1855 he became a silent partner in the firm then publishing Putnam's Monthly, investing $10,000. When the firm failed two years later, through some informality in drawing up the articles of partnership he was declared to be legally responsible for a portion of its debts. Many of his friends held that he was in no way bound beyond the $10,000, and urged him to test the question in the courts. Mr. Curtis refused although his decision involved the assumption by him of a debt of $100,000. He surrendered all his property, and wrote and lectured till the last dollar was paid. It took sixteen years to do it.

Brief Notes.

Special Town Meeting.

As will be noticed by our advertising columns, a special town meeting has been called by the Selectmen for Thursday evening next. It is to see if the town will purchase the bridge, rebuild the bridge, and appropriate more money for the same.

At a special town meeting held on the first day of July last, the Road Commissioners reported that the cost of rebuilding the bridge, by filling and partly by piles would cost $20,000; and that from conversation with one of the County Commissioners, it was thought the County would be willing to pay one-third of the expense; the town therefor passed the following votes:

"That the plan proposed by the Road Commissioners for rebuilding the bridge, be adopted by the town; and that a new pile structure 200 feet in length next the draw, and the filling solid, the remaining 200 feet of the bridge on the south side of the river, provided that an arrangement can be made with the County Commissioners for the cost of the expense of said rebuilding, not to exceed two-thirds of the cost thereof."

"That the sum of $15,000, or so much thereof as may be required is hereby appropriated for rebuilding the bridge, and the town is authorized to borrow said sum, provided however that no money shall be so borrowed until a satisfactory arrangement is completed with the County Commissioners of Norfolk County for bearing one-third part of the cost of said rebuilding."

We now understand that the Commissioners are not willing to pay one-third the expense, and for that reason the subject is to be brought again before the town.

At the same meeting the Selectmen ask for leave to sell at auction or otherwise the old school house and land at Quincy Neck.

Republican Cases.

The caucus of the Republican party was held at the Town Hall on Wednesday. Charles H. Porter, Esq., was elected chairman, and Warren W. Adams secretary. It was voted to ballot for delegates to the next annual convention on one ballot, and the following gentlemen were elected:

State Convention.—Charles F. Adams, Jr., Henry H. Faxon, R. F. Claffin, James Edwards, Josiah Quincy, Jr., J. Q. A. Field.

Scout Convention.—Herbert T. Whitman, John D. Nungess, George F. Pinkham, Charles H. Hardwick, W. L. Faxon, Jonas Shackley.

Councilor Convention.—Herbert M. Federhen, George Harvey Field, George W. Prescott, Elias A. Perkins, Edwin B. Pratt, Charles H. Porter.

County Convention.—J. Q. A. Field, Edwin W. Marsh, Christopher A. Spear, Theophilus King, Jr., Josiah Shackley, Henry H. Faxon.

It was voted that delegates not able to attend shall have power to select substitutes, and, in case of failure or neglect to do so, a majority of the members of each respective delegation be empowered to fill vacancies.

The following gentlemen, with one exception, who served the Republican Town Committee the past year, were unanimously elected for another year:

W. W. Adams, H. S. Luce, Dr. F. J. Bouney, Edward A. Spear, Charles A. Howland, P. H. Gavin, W. M. French, C. A. Spear, George L. Gill, G. Harvey Field, E. H. Newcomb, W. Warren Hayden, George H. Pray, W. C. Seelye, G. F. Pinkham, A. Olney, John Ramsdell, E. A. Perkins.

To get the sense of the meeting in regard to the two most prominent candidates, a vote was taken on each of the gentlemen separately. Seventy-nine favored Hon. Robert R. Bishop of Newton, and only ten Hon. W. W. Crago of New Bedford. Josiah P. Quincy, Jr., R. F. Claffin and Henry H. Faxon spoke in favor of Mr. Bishop, and the latter by his flings at custom house officers, and Mr. Crago's vote on the River and Harbor bill, aroused Charles A. Foster, and a spirited argument followed. The meeting also expressed itself strongly in favor of nominating Hon. John D. Long, of Hingham, for Representative to Congress from this district.

Democratic Cases.

On Saturday evening last the Democrats of the town assembled at the Town Hall, to choose delegates to the state, congressional, county, councilor, and senatorial conventions. W. G. A. Pattee, Esq., was chosen chairman of the meeting and John E. Burns secretary. The following delegates were chosen:

State.—Almer B. Packard, (at large) William Parker, William Webb, John H. Dee, John E. Burns, William N. Eaton, William G. A. Pattee, William A. Holmes and William H. Sampson, Jr.

Congressional.—Squire Butler, George Cahill, James J. Malone, Geo. W. B. Taylor, John A. Duggan, Thos. J. Foley, John Chamberlin, Michael W. Gerty, Jason G. Wilham and Geo. H. Hobart.

County and Councilor.—Joseph Collins (at large) Alvin A. Walker, William B. Barry, William D. Webb, Eben W. Underwood, Seth Dewing, Jr., Ensign N. Fellows, James M. Cleverly, George A. Ordway and George H. Prescott.

Senatorial.—George Cahill, Patrick F. Lacy, Jeremiah Ford, George A. Beard, Cornelius Moynihan, Joseph W. Lombard, George H. Hobart, John A. Green, Bernard Donnelly and Henry W. Eaton.

The delegates to the State convention were instructed to vote for Benj. F. Butler, for Governor.

YACHTING. The second championship regatta of the Hull Yacht Club occurred on Saturday last. The Amy of this town was entered among the fourth class, and the Wildfire in the fifth. The Amy was the first, and as this is her second winning she holds the prize in her class. A protest was entered against the Wildfire on the ground of wrong measurement. On Monday a sail off of the two previous regattas occurred. The only tie being in the fifth class, between the Corsair and the Wildfire in which latter was victorious, taking the first prize in the fifth class.

YACHTING. The second championship regatta of the Hull Yacht Club occurred on Saturday last. The Amy of this town was entered among the fourth class, and the Wildfire in the fifth. The Amy was the first, and as this is her second winning she holds the prize in her class. A protest was entered against the Wildfire on the ground of wrong measurement. On Monday a sail off of the two previous regattas occurred. The only tie being in the fifth class, between the Corsair and the Wildfire in which latter was victorious, taking the first prize in the fifth class.

Special Town Meeting.

As will be noticed by our advertising columns, a special town meeting has been called by the Selectmen for Thursday evening next. It is to see if the town will purchase the bridge, rebuild the bridge, and appropriate more money for the same.

At a special town meeting held on the first day of July last, the Road Commissioners reported that the cost of rebuilding the bridge, by filling and partly by piles would cost $20,000; and that from conversation with one of the County Commissioners, it was thought the County would be willing to pay one-third of the expense; the town therefor passed the following votes:

"That the plan proposed by the Road Commissioners for rebuilding the bridge, be adopted by the town; and that a new pile structure 200 feet in length next the draw, and the filling solid, the remaining 200 feet of the bridge on the south side of the river, provided that an arrangement can be made with the County Commissioners for the cost of the expense of said rebuilding, not to exceed two-thirds of the cost thereof."

"That the sum of $15,000, or so much thereof as may be required is hereby appropriated for rebuilding the bridge, and the town is authorized to borrow said sum, provided however that no money shall be so borrowed until a satisfactory arrangement is completed with the County Commissioners of Norfolk County for bearing one-third part of the cost of said rebuilding."

We now understand that the Commissioners are not willing to pay one-third the expense, and for that reason the subject is to be brought again before the town.

At the same meeting the Selectmen ask for leave to sell at auction or otherwise the old school house and land at Quincy Neck.

Republican Cases.

The caucus of the Republican party was held at the Town Hall on Wednesday. Charles H. Porter, Esq., was elected chairman, and Warren W. Adams secretary. It was voted to ballot for delegates to the next annual convention on one ballot, and the following gentlemen were elected:

State Convention.—Charles F. Adams, Jr., Henry H. Faxon, R. F. Claffin, James Edwards, Josiah Quincy, Jr., J. Q. A. Field.

Scout Convention.—Herbert T. Whitman, John D. Nungess, George F. Pinkham, Charles H. Hardwick, W. L. Faxon, Jonas Shackley.

Councilor Convention.—Herbert M. Federhen, George Harvey Field, George W. Prescott, Elias A. Perkins, Edwin B. Pratt, Charles H. Porter.

County Convention.—J. Q. A. Field, Edwin W. Marsh, Christopher A. Spear, Theophilus King, Jr., Josiah Shackley, Henry H. Faxon.

It was voted that delegates not able to attend shall have power to select substitutes, and, in case of failure or neglect to do so, a majority of the members of each respective delegation be empowered to fill vacancies.

The following gentlemen, with one exception, who served the Republican Town Committee the past year, were unanimously elected for another year:

W. W. Adams, H. S. Luce, Dr. F. J. Bouney, Edward A. Spear, Charles A. Howland, P. H. Gavin, W. M. French, C. A. Spear, George L. Gill, G. Harvey Field, E. H. Newcomb, W. Warren Hayden, George H. Pray, W. C. Seelye, G. F. Pinkham, A. Olney, John Ramsdell, E. A. Perkins.

To get the sense of the meeting in regard to the two most prominent candidates, a vote was taken on each of the gentlemen separately. Seventy-nine favored Hon. Robert R. Bishop of Newton, and only ten Hon. W. W. Crago of New Bedford. Josiah P. Quincy, Jr., R. F. Claffin and Henry H. Faxon spoke in favor of Mr. Bishop, and the latter by his flings at custom house officers, and Mr. Crago's vote on the River and Harbor bill, aroused Charles A. Foster, and a spirited argument followed. The meeting also expressed itself strongly in favor of nominating Hon. John D. Long, of Hingham, for Representative to Congress from this district.

Democratic Cases.

On Saturday evening last the Democrats of the town assembled at the Town Hall, to choose delegates to the state, congressional, county, councilor, and senatorial conventions. W. G. A. Pattee, Esq., was chosen chairman of the meeting and John E. Burns secretary. The following delegates were chosen:

State.—Almer B. Packard, (at large) William Parker, William Webb, John H. Dee, John E. Burns, William N. Eaton, William G. A. Pattee, William A. Holmes and William H. Sampson, Jr.

Congressional.—Squire Butler, George Cahill, James J. Malone, Geo. W. B. Taylor, John A. Duggan, Thos. J. Foley, John Chamberlin, Michael W. Gerty, Jason G. Wilham and Geo. H. Hobart.

County and Councilor.—Joseph Collins (at large) Alvin A. Walker, William B. Barry, William D. Webb, Eben W. Underwood, Seth Dewing, Jr., Ensign N. Fellows, James M. Cleverly, George A. Ordway and George H. Prescott.

Senatorial.—George Cahill, Patrick F. Lacy, Jeremiah Ford, George A. Beard, Cornelius Moynihan, Joseph W. Lombard, George H. Hobart, John A. Green, Bernard Donnelly and Henry W. Eaton.

The delegates to the State convention were instructed to vote for Benj. F. Butler, for Governor.

Firemen of Quincy.

The fire companies of this town in holding their annual parade on Saturday next, if the weather is favorable. It is a fine afternoon of gentle gathering of our citizens and of gentlemen from abroad may be expected. Several excellent bands of music have been engaged for the occasion, and the department will make the handsomest parade ever seen in Quincy. The new steam engine and hose carriage being among the attractions. The line will be formed on Hancock street, in the center of the town, with the J. Q. Adams Chemical Company at the head, and will march through some of the principal streets, in the center and south parts of the town.

After the route has been passed over the companies will march in review of the Engineers, and then will come the trial of the engines on horizontal playing for the nickel-plated pipe. Each engine will play through 250 feet of hose.

The following is the result of the playing in 1879, 1880 and 1881:

	1879.	Feet.	Inches.
Granite.		202	3 1/2
Vulture.		202	3 1/2

Public Schools.

We learn that there is now a constant stream of visitors to our public schools. We had got the impression of late that the novelty of the Quincy system had, in a measure, at least, died out, and visitors were not so numerous as when C. M. Barker was here. We were surprised, however, to learn from Miss Underwood, one of the most successful teachers in the Coddington schools, that her school had had seventy-eight visitors the first fortnight of this month.

Some of the families of Wollaston are grumbling that their children are not making any progress in their studies. Our family informed us this week that they believe their children were not advancing any, in fact, one of the younger ones, they thought did not know as much as when they moved to Wollaston three years ago; still, he had been to school constantly. The reasons the parents gave were the many changes in teachers. They believe there had been eighteen teachers there, since they moved into the village.

Everybody acquainted with our public schools must admit that there is nothing more detrimental to a good school than a change of teachers, and if we have been rightly informed, we believe it is the duty of the Superintendent and School Committee to put a stop to these changes.

Town Meeting.

At the special town meeting held on Thursday evening at the Town Hall, there was not a large attendance, owing in part, no doubt, to the very unpleasant state of the weather. Edwin W. Marsh, Esq., was elected Moderator, and then came a discussion as to repairing or rebuilding the Neponset bridge. A number of gentlemen expressed their views that the bridge was unsafe, and that an additional sum of money should be appropriated and the bridge should be rebuilt. Others were opposed to making large appropriations at any special town meeting, and favored letting the matter rest until the annual town meeting in March. There was considerable sharp discussion on this subject, and finally the meeting voted to appropriate $1,000 for repairing said bridge, with the understanding that the subject should again be brought before the town in March. The meeting then authorized the Treasurer to borrow $1,000 for repairing said bridge.

Under article five, the Selectmen were authorized to sell at auction the schoolhouse and land at Quincy Neck. There being no further business, the meeting was then dissolved.

Masonic Visitation.

At the regular meeting of Rural Lodge, on Thursday evening, the District Deputy Grand Master and a delegate of the third Masonic district, made their annual official visit. The distinguished gentlemen were as follows:—R. W. Wm. H. H. Soule, D. D. G. M.; R. W. Jos. G. Grose, D. D. G. M.; R. W. S. M. Hollington, D. D. G. M.; R. W. John Carr, D. D. G. M.; R. W. Thos. S. Kelley, D. D. G. M.; R. W. T. H. Harding, D. D. G. M.; and Bro. Arthur E. Gill, Wm. Penn, Albert Page and Henry C. Mitchell. The R. W. D. D. G. M. examined the charter, records, etc., of the lodge, and witnessed the raising of one of Quincy's young gentlemen to the sublime degree of a Master Mason. He spoke up in praise of the excellent work, for which Rural Lodge is noted, and seemingly enjoyed the occasion very much. Seven out of ten town lodges were also represented.

While Rural Lodge has been unfortunate in losing four members by death during the year, their membership has not decreased, for several have been initiated. The lodge is in a flourishing condition.

SAD EVENT.—The sudden death of Lucy F., wife of Mr. Jacob H. Hersey, on Monday last, after a two-days' sickness, cast a melancholy sadness over a large circle of friends and neighbors. Mr. Hersey had returned from Europe only four days before his death, and had apparently enjoyed his health during his journey and since her return home.

"Death leaves aching mark."—By this sad dispensation a happy home has been suddenly turned into an abode of sorrow and grief. Mrs. Hersey was a devoted wife, an affectionate mother, and a kind and obliging neighbor. The stricken husband and children have the sympathy of every one in this their great sorrow. The funeral took place yesterday, and was largely attended. She was buried in Mt. Wollaston Cemetery.

Quincy Point Items.

From 11 to 12 o'clock Wednesday morning the temperature at the Point ran as high as 110 degrees in the shade, and a black cloud indicating a coming tempest, hung very low and almost stationary over the harbor. Suddenly a blinding dash of lightning followed, instantly by a terrific clap of thunder startled the whole neighborhood and caused a general scare. The lightning struck the double house owned by John Federber and situated on Washington street opposite the office and occupied by John Delory and M. E. Nash, and after tearing off the clapboards, and the plastering in two rooms and knocking all the courage out of the tenants, passed out through an open window. The shock was very generally felt by the people in the vicinity and their actions and feelings would form a subject for a first class serio-comic lecture. The building was insured in the Quincy Mutual Company for $30,000, and was damaged $45 which amount was promptly paid Friday.

A crowd of men from Boston have been in the habit of coming to, Germantown in yachts the last few Sundays and engaging in games of sail, on the land of the "Sons of Sam" Harbor. The noise they make is plainly heard across the Town River.

The Vulture Engine Company is negotiating with the Brockton band for its services parade day. Mr. Frank A. Spear is making the new shirts for the company.

The Vulture Engine Company held meetings Saturday and Monday evening, and played the engine both nights, throwing streams to a distance of from 120 to 186 feet. A communication was received from the Conqueror Engine Company which stated it could not be the guests of the Vulture Company on parade day, and also from the Chief Engineer of the Provincetown Fire Engine, who declined to take part.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Governor, and Hon. Robert E. Bishop, of Newton, received a handsome majority on an informal ballot. On motion of Attorney-General Marston, Bishop was then nominated for governor by acclamation.

Republican Convention.

The Republicans met at Worcester on Wednesday and nominated state officers for the ensuing year. The meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock, and a temporary organization was effected by the choice of Hon. Charles A. Scott, of Lowell, as president, and E. H. Haskell, of Gloucester, as secretary.

George E. Sanborn, of Quincy, for over driving a horse belonging to George J. Jones. After hearing numerous witnesses, the defendant was discharged.

Hosier B. and Loring Hayden, of Braintree, for keeping a liquor nuisance. Discharged.

William Haynes, of Quincy, for illegally selling intoxicating liquors, was ordered by the Court to pay one hundred dollars to the State.

William Costello, of Quincy, for illegally selling intoxicating liquors, on two complaints. Cases continued until this Saturday morning.

Mary Ann Tracy, of Weymouth, for being drunk. Fined $1 and costs, which she paid.

CONCERT. The entertainment given by the Ellis family at Faxon Hall, on Thursday evening, was not largely attended owing to the easterly storm, but those who braved the bad weather were much pleased with the attractions offered by the family. They hailed from Vineland and were well acquainted with Messrs. C. D. Brackett, George G. Southern and other Quincy boys that are living in that flourishing place.

SLIGHT FIRE. On Sunday morning last, shortly after nine o'clock, a slight fire was discovered in the rear of the Robertson House stable. The fire originated from the hot ashes thrown there. An hour of hard work with buckets of water extinguished what would have been a very disastrous blaze.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 30, 1882.

ANNUAL PARADE.

Arrangements have been made by the Engineers and the various companies composing the Quincy Fire Department, with the exception of the L. W. Lovell Chemical at Wollaston, to have the annual fall parade this afternoon, if the weather permits. It is expected that the department will make a larger and better show than on any former occasion. The new and splendid steamer, built the past season at Manchester, N. H., will be a great addition to the line; and then the new and elegant J. W. Hall Hook and Ladder truck, just completed by Messrs. Tirrell & Sons, under the watchful eye of Engineer Glover, is another splendid addition to the parade. The carriage, hooks, ladders, and in fact every part of this truck is new, except the bumper ladder, which has been used but little and is as good as new.

Seven excellent bands of music have been engaged for the occasion, and everything, except the weather, now indicates most successful outcome.

The line of the procession will be formed on Adams street, the right resting near the Adams Academy, and will be formed in the following order:

- Police.
Chief Engineer, John W. Hall.
Assistant Engineers.
Sociate Band.
Capt. E. H. Richardson.
J. Q. Adams Chemical Engine Company.
Cadet Band of Boston.
Capt. J. A. Green.
J. W. Hall Hook and Ladder Company.
Hook and Ladder.
Capt. Peter J. Williams.
Tiger Engine Company, No. 2.
Brookline Band.
Capt. Theodore H. Newcomb.
Vulture Engine Company, No. 4.
Provincetown Band.
Ulysses Engine Company of Provincetown.
Union Band of West Quincy.
Capt. Wm. B. Barry.
Granite Engine Company, No. 3.
Quincy Steamer, No. 1.
Lewis McIntire, Engineer.
Higgins Band of Boston.
Capt. J. M. Pierce.
Steamer Hook Company.

The procession will move at 1.15 P. M. sharp, whether all the companies are in the line or not, and pass through the following streets: Hancock, School, Franklin, Water, Quincy Avenue, Elm, Washington to the Stone Temple, where they will pass in review of the Engineers, and be dismissed.

The playing of the engines will then be in order. J. Q. Adams Chemical will first show her excellent qualities; then the Tiger, Vulture and Granite will try their skill for the prize pipe. Afterwards, if there is time before dark, the steam pump and new steamer will both be tried.

The Tiger, Vulture and Granite will play through 250 feet of hose, each engine, unless hurried, and will have 15 minutes to do their best in throwing a horizontal stream.

The following is the result of the playing in 1879, 1880 and 1881:

	1879.	Feet	Inches
Granite,		202	3 1-2
Vulture,		202	0 3-4
Tiger,		198	7 1-2
	1880.
Vulture,		186	7 1-2
Granite,		174	7 3-8
Tiger,		174	2 3-4
	1881.
Granite,		191	5 1-2
Tiger,		189	4
Vulture,		184	0 3-8

ROBBERY. A man named Michael Tierney of North Weymouth, was assaulted by a gang of ruffians while passing through Water street, near Faxon's lane, in this town, on Sunday morning. He came from Boston on the late train with a friend, and after spending an hour or so with his companion, started to walk home; when passing through Water street he was knocked down and the contents of his basket, three pairs of boots for his wife and children, groceries, &c., were taken from him. He had presence of mind enough to secure thirteen dollars in bills which he had in his breast pocket and he held them tight in his hand during the melee. Officers Farnall and Locke were notified of the occurrence and visited the locality Sunday, where they found a gang of ruffians as usual, one of whom was drunk. They took him to the lockup. It is said that this is one of the worst places in town, as a gang of mauling ruffians congregate there day and night, and it is really dangerous for women or children to pass through that part of the street.

FAREWELL PARTY. On Friday evening of last week thirty or more of the young friends of Miss Annie L. Prescott, assembled by invitation at her father's residence on Spear street, to pass a social evening with that young lady before her departure for the Northfield Seminary. The amusements on this occasion, together with the numerous games, dancing, &c., made the evening one long to be remembered, and we hope the very heavy rain storm, which came up suddenly in the evening did not dampen their spirits in going home. Miss Prescott left on Saturday for Northfield, carrying with her the best wishes of all her friends.

BIRTHDAY PARTY. On the 16th of the present month, some dozen or more relatives and old friends of Mr. Joseph G. Brackett, made that gentleman a pleasant surprise visit, and visitors and visited enjoyed a few hours in a very social and enjoyable manner. It was Mr. Brackett's seventy-third birthday, and the event was certainly worthy a celebration, as Mr. B. is one of those who can enjoy a good time. May he live many more years, surrounded with all the blessings of this life and with no infirmities of age.

CONCERT. A fine entertainment is announced for this evening, at the Town Hall, by the Spaulding Bell Ringers. They are too well known to need a word of praise from us. They are finely organized this season and will give the most laughable, chaste and refined performance of any company now traveling.

EREBRAT. In our last issue we stated that Evan Jones of Quincy, was fined guilty by the Superior Court for selling intoxicating liquors. It should have been for evading the screen law, having flowers at the windows.

Brief Locals.

The weather this week has been cold and unpleasant.

A farm of thirty-five acres is advertised for sale.

Two luggies and a gold-mounted harness will be sold cheap.

Peter McConarty has 25,000 second-hand bricks for sale.

"Uncle Nat" has gone and got married. Would a thought it.

A pine apple is still growing in Col. A. B. Packard's garden.

The Legion of Honor hold their meeting next Tuesday evening.

A Butler rally will be held in Hancock's Hall on Wednesday next.

Mr. John Nightingale and family are visiting with friends in New York.

Voters, read the Selectmen's notice and govern yourselves accordingly.

The roof of St. Mary's Catholic Church, West Quincy, has been covered with tin.

The fall flowers are looking very lovely now in Mt. Wollaston Cemetery.

Do not fail to notice the change in time of opening and closing the public library.

Miss M. A. Perkins is prepared to do your millinery work in good style; give her a call.

The checkerboard on the next page is Durgin's, our wide-awake village apothecary.

The National Mount Wollaston Bank will pay a dividend of four per cent., on Monday next.

Mrs. Sarah Brewer is still in a very precarious state and no hopes are entertained of her recovery.

The heavy rains last week washed our streets badly and many of them need considerable repairs.

September which closes to-day has been an unusually rough month, with an immense supply of water.

Those in favor of the election of Benj. F. Butler are invited to meet at Hancock's Hall, on Wednesday evening.

Miss S. H. Hussey has returned from a pleasant and restful vacation, spent among the beautiful hills of New Hampshire.

As will be seen by a notice in another column, Sweetser's market will be closed on Wednesday evenings, until 9 o'clock.

If the old maxim, that the last Friday in the month governs the next, holds good, we may expect plenty of stormy weather in October.

It is estimated that one hundred families in Quincy had water in their cellars on Thursday and Friday.

We learn that Joseph Warren Elliott, son of Mr. Richard G. Elliott, is quite dangerously sick, of typhoid fever, at his father's residence.

Amer B. Packard and Henry E. Hardwick have been serving as jurors at the Superior Court session, at Dedham the present week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thomas of Washington, D. C., after a pleasant visit among friends in this town and other places, returned to their home on Thursday.

Fruit and flowers for the Boston hospitals may be sent on Wednesday afternoon and evening of next week, to the house of Mr. John B. Bass, Granite street.

The gilding of the cross on the top of the steeple of St. John's Catholic Church has been the work of several weeks past. The bad weather and high winds have caused great delays.

At a court of insolvency at Dedham, on Wednesday last, Thomas Drake, Jr., of Quincy filed a petition in insolvency. He has liabilities, the Herald says, of about $1800, with no assets whatever.

Mr. Charles A. Richards of Washington, D. C., called on us on Thursday. He was looking in excellent health; he has been visiting friends in New Hampshire and Massachusetts and returned to his home on Thursday.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Mr. T. Price Hardwick, with pneumonia. Since writing the above we are pleased to say that Mr. Hardwick's symptoms are more favorable and hopes are entertained of his recovery.

The members of the Natick Commandery Knights' Templars will celebrate next Wednesday as a field day. Commanderies from Hudson, Milford and Quincy will be present, each accompanied by a band of music.

All the young folks in town are waiting for Mr. Walker's dancing school. Eleven lessons are to be given at Faxon Hall, and a grand ball at the Town Hall with Carter's Band of Boston for music. October 10th will soon be along and we predict a hall full.

The raising of the grade on Washington street, at Bent's hill, is so completely done that the hill is now in an excellent condition. After Mr. Bent's store is raised, which we learn will soon be done, and the sidewalk fixed, it will be a good improvement.

The bell which has stood in the tower of the Universalist Church, in Quincy, for the past fifty years, was successfully lowered to the ground, on Tuesday last, by John Cavanagh, of Braintree. It being an excellent bell, we learn that the Society intends using it on the new church when completed.

Owing to the heavy rains last week the brooks and meadows were completely overflowed with water. The town brook was unusually full, and the Miller estate and Charles L. Pierce's were sights to behold. The cellar under Bent's store (now occupied by Mr. Hall) on Washington street, was filled from two to three feet with water, and as it was owing greatly to the raising of the street grade in front of the store, Mr. Hall we learn expects damages from the town.

Those young men on Brackett St. who went fishing last Sunday morning did not have good luck—there was too much water for them. In crossing the stream just below the locks in a small boat, their feet went to the bottom, and their trout were completely drowned. Not daunted in their efforts, they kept on, but as might have been expected, fish did not bite, and they had their labor for naught. But that was not all; a smart shower came up and gave them a good drenching, and they went home wet through, thinking it was poor fun to go fishing on the Sabbath. We did not learn whether their mothers gave them a spanking, as good mothers usually do, or not, but we presume they were well punished.

Quincy Point Items.

The Vulture Engine Company has been getting ready for the parade and trial which takes place this afternoon. Saturday and Tuesday evenings were devoted to playing the engine and streams were thrown far distances. Thursday evening the company held a meeting and a letter was read from the Ulysses Engine Company of Provincetown, which said the members of that company, fifty in number and accompanied by a band of twenty pieces and eight invited guests, would arrive in Quincy Friday evening and remain until Saturday afternoon after the trial. Arrangements have been made to feed and lodge them and they will be taken around the town in barges Saturday morning to see some of the attractions. The Vulture Company will have the services of the Brockton Band and will appear in new and attractive uniforms which were distributed Thursday evening. We hope to see the prize pipe again won by the Vulture.

Rev. Mr. Fitz preached in the Christian Union Church last Sunday, and Rev. G. B. Lawton at the Baptist Chapel; the latter gentleman will preach again to-morrow in the Chapel.

Capt. Schuyler Penney arrived home from Turks Island last week, and sails again this week for Wilmington, N. C., and Port au Prince, in a barkentine.

Last Saturday Benjamin and James Delory and Charles Vincent had some trouble with Mr. Frank Peck, at the latter's coal wharf, which resulted in an exchange of blows but no one was seriously damaged. Monday, as a renewal of the trouble seemed imminent, the services of Officer Farnall were secured to preserve the peace. He succeeded.

Mr. Frank House is again at work for Mr. Charles Hall, our grocer.

Mrs. T. B. Thomas is confined to the house by a severe attack of neuralgia. Mr. Horace Sampson has moved to Point Holmes which he has leased for a term of years from Mr. Daniel Butser, and again this week for Wilmington, N. C., and Port au Prince, in a barkentine.

Monday, as a renewal of the trouble seemed imminent, the services of Officer Farnall were secured to preserve the peace. He succeeded.

Mr. Frank House is again at work for Mr. Charles Hall, our grocer.

Mrs. T. B. Thomas is confined to the house by a severe attack of neuralgia. Mr. Horace Sampson has moved to Point Holmes which he has leased for a term of years from Mr. Daniel Butser, and again this week for Wilmington, N. C., and Port au Prince, in a barkentine.

Last Saturday Benjamin and James Delory and Charles Vincent had some trouble with Mr. Frank Peck, at the latter's coal wharf, which resulted in an exchange of blows but no one was seriously damaged. Monday, as a renewal of the trouble seemed imminent, the services of Officer Farnall were secured to preserve the peace. He succeeded.

Senatorial Convention.

Wednesday forenoon the Republican Senatorial Convention of the First Norfolk District was held at the Town Hall, Braintree. Hon. F. A. Hobart called the convention to order. A permanent organization was afterwards effected by the election of Mr. Hobart as chairman and J. W. Bradley of Milton, as secretary. A committee on credentials appointed by the chair, consisting of W. L. Faxon of Quincy, Geo. E. Dowd of Canton, and Lysander Wood of Stoughton, reported twenty-nine delegates, presenting a large number of names, and a ballot was taken for an informal ballot to be taken for Senator from the First Norfolk District, which motion was carried, and the ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast, 28.
Benj. S. Lovell of Weymouth, 21.
Newton Howell of Brookline, 7.

The result having been announced by the chair, a motion was made to nominate Benj. S. Lovell by acclamation, which was accordingly done, and Mr. Lovell was declared the nominee of the convention.

Judge Bumpus then moved that Hon. F. A. Hobart be chosen a member of the Republican State Central Committee, objected to this, and moved that the convention proceed to take an informal ballot for a member of the State Committee. Judge Bumpus having withdrawn his motion an informal ballot was taken. The result was that F. A. Hobart received the most votes, and he was accordingly elected. This concluded the business and the convention dissolved.

All classes are admitted on payment of one cent at the door, or by purchase of tickets. The committee reserving the right of refusing admission to objectionable persons, or expelling such as may be disorderly during the performance.

The entertainments are fifteen or twenty in number, including secular concerts, sacred concerts, readings, recitations, magic-lantern, recitations or lectures, amateur theatricals, and such other attractions as can be arranged for free, or at a nominal expense.

The Town Hall is considered the best adapted for such a course of entertainments, and several residents have promised to contribute the rent. Wednesday evening from 7.30 to 9.00 probably be the best evening for them and as a name the entertainments might be designated.

Should the above scheme meet with the favorable consideration of our readers, I should be happy to receive the names of those who would like to take part in any way, as subjects, or on the committee, as musicians, vocalists, readers, reciters, amateur performers and stewards.

For a course of twenty entertainments there would be needed about ten pianists, each to perform about twice during the season; about six readers and reciters, three or four lecturers, and as many solo singers as possible, who could sing comic, patriotic and sentimental songs for comic songs and recitations, and who would be preferred, while for patriotism, historical recitations, etc., our fathers should be ready to incite us to deeds of valor or warn us of past mistakes.

In reply then to your correspondent's query:—Who will give the first lecture?—I may say that there are several all waiting to be asked, and among them

Your obedient servant,
E. A. HUNT, Hancock St.

Universalist Convention.

The Universalist Churches in Massachusetts were nearly all represented at the annual State Convention that was held at the Town Hall, Braintree, on Tuesday afternoon and closed Thursday. The meetings throughout the session were very much enjoyed by those interested in this denomination. The Treasurer's report was as follows: Balance on hand Sept. 27, 1881, $10,064.14; total receipts, $22,927.29; expenditures, $10,982.62; balance on hand, $22,927.61. The following parishes have paid off their debts: North Weymouth, Lynn, Danvers, Beverly, South Weymouth, Jamaica Plain, Charlestown, (Dartmouth), Gloucester, Hyannis, Lynn (First), Lynn (Second), Marlboro', Milford, Newtonville, Palmer, Salem, Milburn Falls, Springfield, Taunton, Wakefield; the whole amounting to $84,086.

CHECKER-BOARD PUZZLE. We have received from the publishers, Selchow & Righter of New York, an interesting and amusing checker-board puzzle. It is a hot one. Of course it will be necessary for canceuses for the choice of delegates to the joint convention to be held in all the towns of both counties, as soon as the call for the convention shall be issued by the joint committee, and it will be at these primaries, no less than at the subsequent convention, that the friends of the candidates will get in their effective work. Notwithstanding that each county has made a distinct nomination for the office, we will not be surprised if, from entering the contest in the joint convention and helping to make things lively.

Train Wrecked.

On Saturday morning the outward-bound Cape train, which left the Old Colony depot, Boston, at 8 o'clock, was wrecked by a switch near the crossing on Union street, South Braintree.

The locomotive John A. Andrew was considerably damaged. A mail car was next to the tender, which escaped with comparatively little damage. Notwithstanding the fact that the cars were crowded with passengers, no one was injured further than being frightened and "shook up." Those going to Plymouth and way stations were transferred to another train at the depot.

All outward trains were delayed during the forenoon, but by afternoon, all damage to the track having been repaired, trains were run on their usual time. Really there was no one to blame for the accident.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY. We learn that a bold attempt was made to rob a man on the Neponset bridge on Wednesday evening. The facts are as follows: Calvin Richards, of Boston, was carried to Squantum, where he remained; but as his driver was returning over Neponset bridge, two highwaymen demanded his money. One seized his horse, and the other attempted to get into the carriage when the driver knocked the villain down with the loaded end of his whip, then hopped out and served the other rascal, who held his horse, in the same manner, and then drove off.

THE OLDEST TEMPERANCE SOCIETY. The Massachusetts Temperance Society, now entering on its seventieth year, and the oldest Temperance Society in the world, met in Boston, on Thursday of last week, at the office of the President, Hon. Jacob Sleeper, and elected officers for the ensuing year. The organization was in good working order.

The Quincy Readings.

To the Publishers of the Quincy Patriot:—Referring to a letter of one of your correspondents, depicting the non-existence of some entertainment attractive to the young men of this town, and closing his lament with the query "who will give the first lecture?" I arrived at the following conclusions: A popular, low-priced, weekly entertainment was likely to be appreciated. There are public-spirited men in this town who would guarantee the promoters of such entertainments any reasonably necessary funds.

There are ladies and gentlemen in this town who can play, sing, recite, read, lecture, etc., whose services would be available gratuitously. We have, therefore, around us the materials for a committee to work with.

The need is for a man to take the direction, who, having a definite scheme, has the tact and ability to carry it out. Now, there are several gentlemen who have the tact and ability, and for their consideration I beg to submit the following scheme, which has been successful in other parts, and become quite an institution in many towns.

The committee is chosen (who has the arrangement of programmes, etc.) from a committee of seven or eight prominent and influential men. This committee guarantees funds, audits accounts, approves or otherwise, songs, lectures, recitations, etc., proposed, and uses their influence with musical and vocal friends.

Quincy, Jan 21.

SATURDAY, OCT. 7, 1882.

THE ANNUAL PARADE.

The annual parade by the fire department of Quincy, on Saturday afternoon last, was a splendid affair, surpassing all others in former years, and an honor to the Chief Engineer, John W. Hall, and his able assistants.

The several companies were promptly on hand, and the procession started from in front of the Adams Academy at 1:20, and quickly marched over the route designated in our last issue. There were about 500 persons in line, including seven excellent bands of music, together with the different pieces of fire apparatus owned by the town, including the beautiful steam engine, built the past season at Manchester, N. H., at a cost of $2,500; also the new hook and ladder truck, just completed by Messrs. Tirrell & Sons, which attracted much attention.

Among the noticeable things of the line was a beautiful display of flags in front of the headquarters of the ex-W. M. French Hose Company by day, and a handsome illumination with Chinese lanterns by night.

After the procession returned from the march and had been reviewed by the Engineers, the band-engine companies tried their skill in throwing a horizontal stream. They all played well, and did credit to themselves. The Tigers commenced the trial, and succeeded in throwing water 180 feet 4-1/4 inches; the Vulture came next, and the result of their trial was 178 feet 10-1/2 inches; the Granite came last and how away the prize—they played 200 feet, 10 inches,—and carried home the handsome nickel-plated pipe, which they had won by a very narrow margin, since it was purchased, the last two times in succession, which entitles them to hold it for their own.

The Granite Company was assisted by the Butler Boy Engine Company, of Braintree, which company calculates to take the prize whenever there is one, as it showed their friends at the recent firemen's muster at Weymouth.

The Vulture Company was assisted by the Ulysses Engine Company, of Provincetown, a fine body of men, who came on Friday evening and stayed until near sunset Saturday. By their quiet and orderly disposition, and general good behavior, they won the respect and esteem of our citizens. They were accompanied by the Middleboro' Band, which was much appreciated.

The J. W. Hall Hook and Ladder Company made a very fine appearance. They were accompanied by the Eureka Hook and Ladder Company, of East Weymouth, whose fine appearance, and preceded by the Cadet Band of Boston. While the engines were playing, the band furnished some choice selections in the rear of the Stone Church, which the ladies, in particular, highly appreciated. After the trial the two companies, hand, and a few invited guests went to the Reform Club building, where a nice supper was served by Mr. Daniel F. French, which was followed by speeches.

The Steamer Company had as guests the Randolph Steamer Hose Company, which made a very pretty appearance. They were preceded by the Higgins Band, an excellent body of musicians, from Boston. After the trial they all repaired to the new hall, fitted up for the company on School street, where a sumptuous repast was prepared by Mr. Schiller, of Boston. The colored veterans were kept busy for some time, looking after the wants of the hungry firemen and their guests, consisting of the Engineers, Selectmen and friends.

The Tiger Company made a good appearance, and was escorted by the Hook and Ladder Band, Francis P. Lord of Quincy, as leader. This company made its last parade on this occasion, as we learn they were disbanded on Monday evening by the Engineers. The board feeling that they had no further need of their services, since the location of the new steamer in the Tiger's immediate vicinity.

The Union Band of West Quincy, played in an excellent manner on this occasion and were much appreciated by the Granite boys. They had the honor of leading the victors of the day.

In the evening, many of our citizens enjoyed an excellent band concert in front of the Orthodox Church. The Cadet Band of Boston furnished the music in their unusually good taste, and gave excellent satisfaction.

In Memory of Paul J. Revere.

We are pleased to learn that Paul Revere Post, No. 1, of this city, have sent a beautiful stone for the Soldiers' Memorial Tower and Church, soon to be erected on the battle field at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. The granite slab was sawed by Messrs. Barker & Sons, polished by Mr. William B. Munroe, and lettered by Mr. William W. Penniman of this town. Its inscription reads:

COL. PAUL J. REVERE,
2001 REVERE ROAD, W. QUINCY, MASS.

The thousands who yearly visit this field where the great conflict for Liberty and Union was fought, will be glad to notice the name of Col. Revere among the many other distinguished patriots whose names shall be placed upon this historic structure.

Wollaston.

The Oratorio Society has selected "The Creation" for rehearsal, with occasional part songs for variety. The attendance and interest are steadily increasing; there being sixty singers present at the last meeting, besides a number of visitors. "King All Glorious," by Barby, was taken up for the first time; Mr. S. M. King and Mr. George T. Elliot giving a very fine rendering of the solo parts. It has been decided to make the Baptist Church a permanent place of meeting for the winter. A concert may be looked for later in the season. Any change of place or time of meeting will be noted in the Patriot. Let all friends of good music in the town avail themselves of this opportunity for vocal practice, as well as pleasure, free of expense, and unite in advancing the musical interests of the town.

PERSONAL. Mr. Albert F. Woodbury, one of our Quincy boys, who has been associated with Dr. George W. Bird of Brookline, as head clerk in his large apothecary store, has accepted a position in the well known apothecary store of Dr. Estes, of Rockland, and has removed there. May success attend him.

Brief Locals.

Planes continue to be troublesome but their days are numbered.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were perfect Autumn days.

Mosquitoes have given their farewell concerts for this season.

The evening dancing school of Russ B. Walker opens Tuesday night.

There are two cases of typhoid fever at the Quincy Home at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Brackett celebrate their golden wedding on Tuesday next.

The Pine Point Hotel and Lovell's Groves were closed for the season Oct. 1st.

Capt. Osgood Cummings has been quite dangerously sick at his residence the past week.

A County Convention of the W. C. T. Union will be held at Malden, Oct. 11th and 12th.

The annual meeting of St. Stephen's Chapter, R. A. Masons, was held on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Timothy Sugrue cautions the public against paying money due him to any one but himself.

Messrs. William and Walter Glover and Frank Mitchell are stopping a few weeks at Bucksport, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Taber closed the Linden House on Monday. They have had a very successful season.

The Steamer Company will hold a course of assemblies in Town Hall, commencing next Thursday evening.

Rev. Mr. Kelley will hold services in Captain Hodgkinson's house, Germantown, to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock.

The regular monthly session of Probate Court in Quincy, will be held on Wednesday next, at the Town House.

Miss Annie C. Nightingale left Thursday for Easton (Pa.), Philadelphia and vicinity, where she intends to remain nearly all winter.

A large flock of wild geese passed over Quincy quietly on last Thursday morning—the first of the season, we believe.

The comet may be seen in the south-eastern sky between four and five in the morning. It is a brilliant sight and well worth early rising.

The Sabbath School, connected with the West Quincy Methodist Episcopal Church, had one of their fine concerts on Sunday evening.

Paul Revere Post will hold a fair at the Town Hall, from Dec. 18th to 22d, in aid of their relief fund. $1000 to be distributed in presents.

An intoxicated man on the late train from Boston on Wednesday night, fell between the cars, and was rescued from certain death, by Constable Furland.

Fruit and flowers for the Boston hospitals may be sent, on Wednesday afternoon and evening of next week, to the house of Mr. Asa Wellington, Hancock street.

Quincy is still in the back ground. Dedham has its water supply and is now endeavoring to secure permission from the Legislature to hold land for Park purposes.

The valuable estate of the late Josiah Adams on Hancock street is advertised for sale. It is too valuable for house lots and will undoubtedly be purchased for stores.

A caucus will be held at the Lyceum Room on Tuesday evening by the Republicans of this town, to choose delegates to a joint convention to be held in Boston on the 13th inst.

Joseph W. Lombard will sell at auction this evening at the store formerly occupied by S. S. Spear, on Hancock street, a large lot of household furniture as well as by notice by an advertisement.

The farmers are busy harvesting their crops, which are, as a whole, in this vicinity, rather below the average. The cranberry meadows, owing to heavy rains last month, have been very wet for the pickers.

A warrant was issued on Thursday for the arrest of Officer H. H. Faxon for assault on Mrs. Kate O'Connor, while searching her husband's store for liquor. The case will come before the Court on Monday morning next.

Miss Ida M. Newcomb, accompanied by a friend, has been spending a vacation of two weeks, pleasantly at home. Miss Newcomb has half completed a course at the training school for nurses at the Massachusetts General Hospital.

Mr. Patrick Morisey, who was so seriously injured by falling from the tree in front of the Steamer House, and was conveyed to the Quincy Home for care, has so far recovered as to be able to walk about by the aid of crutches.

Officer Furland, on Tuesday last, turned over to the State Liquor Agent, liquors confiscated by the court, and seized from the following persons: Helen Walsh, Catherine Kirdan, John McGowan, and two lots from Patrick Brannan.

Quincy's clerks enjoy their Wednesday evenings off, and the stores not being lighted on that evening, the Square looks deserted. It is a good idea however, for it gives the employer as well as the employee at least one evening to himself.

We would invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mrs. L. Battles, who is so well-known to the ladies of this town for her efficient manner in filling orders for work. She will, with the same promptness, attend all orders as heretofore.

We stated recently that a horse driven to Fall River from this place by Mr. Collins, died almost immediately after being put into the stable.

Some of our readers have the impression that it was that excellent horseman, Mr. Timothy Collins, we desire to correct the idea, as he is not the man.

When a couple have been married and lived together fifty years, it is thought to be a remarkable event, but when three-score years have been reached, how much more extraordinary and beautiful does it appear.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wild of this town will celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage on Tuesday next.

The Republicans hold their Councilor Convention for this district in Boston on Friday next. Also, on the same day and place, the Republicans of Norfolk and Plymouth counties hold a joint convention for the nomination of a District Attorney for the South-eastern District. Judge Bumpus is the favorite candidate for this county.

Quincy Point Items.

Friday night of last week the Ulysses Engine Company of Provincetown arrived at Quincy and was met at the depot by the Vulture Company, and escorted to the Point, where supper was in readiness for the men after their long journey. After an evening of friendly greetings the visitors were taken to the houses of the neighbors for the night. Saturday morning they were furnished with breakfast and dinner, and promptly at 12:30 p. m. they formed in line with the Vulture Company and marched to the Centre to take part in the parade and trial. After the trial the Vulture Company escorted their guests to the depot, where they took the train for home, receiving many hearty farewell cheers. We hear nothing but compliments for the behavior of the visiting firemen. The Vulture Company then marched to its engine house, where a fine supper was in waiting, to which the members sat down with appetites not at all lessened by their defeat. While the company did not succeed in winning the prize pipe we all feel proud of the excellent appearance and gentlemanly behavior of its members, whose actions and bearing were a matter of favorable comment from many of the spectators. In the evening the Brockton band gave a very fine concert in front of the engine house, which was listened to by a large number of people who applauded each of the many excellently rendered selections.

The Vulture Engine Company held a meeting Monday evening and passed votes of thanks to those who had assisted them at the trial and who had furnished money and eatables.

Mr. A. C. Nash died quite suddenly at San Mateo, California, Tuesday.

He was well known to the older residents of Quincy, having lived here a good many years.

Rev. George W. Bosworth, D. D., Secretary of the Mass. Baptist Convention, will preach in the Baptist Chapel to-morrow.

Next Thursday evening there will be an entertainment in the Baptist Chapel, consisting of tableaux and music. Extra preparation has been made to make the amusements well worth seeing. Refreshments will be for sale.

Thursday evening the ladies of the Christian Union Church gave an ice cream and oyster party at the Nook school house, which was well attended. This was the first of a series to be held during the winter.

One hundred and seventy-five vessels passed the Point during the month of September.

Thursday afternoon a carryall, driven by Mr. John Dorley, and one belonging to Mr. Henry Nash, of North Weymouth, collided on the Point drawbridge, both carriages were somewhat damaged.

The officers and members of the Vulture Engine Company, and also the judge, said that when the Granite Engine Company made its last play they have good reasons for believing the water engine to be a good one.

The side-walk at Bent's Creek, at the Neck, has several bad holes in it, which ought to be repaired before some one gets injured.

The engineers have been having good luck the past week, but the fish are unusually small.

NORFOLK COUNTY G. A. R. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year by the delegates to the Norfolk County association, at a meeting held in Boston on Monday:

Commander, G. R. Holmes, post 85.

Senior Vice-Commander, J. W. Bradlee, post 102.

Junior Vice-Commander, J. M. Holt, post 88.

Adjutant, D. W. Lewis, post 121.

Quartermaster, Lysander Wood, post 72.

The delegates voted to continue the visits to the different posts in the county, inaugurated last winter. They will visit post 72, Stoughton, Oct. 17; post 88, Quincy, Nov. 23, and post 102, Milton, Dec. 20.

BYTLE CLUB. At a meeting of the bytles of Gen. Butler, held at Hardwick's hall, on Wednesday, a Butler Club was organized by the election of the following officers:

President, John H. Dee.

Vice-President, A. W. Hicks.

Secretary, George Cahill.

Treasurer, Frederick Hardwick.

The club is now successfully organizing and it intends to push a vigorous campaign. It would not be much of a surprise to many of our citizens, if the friends of the General succeeded in giving him a handsome majority in Quincy, on the seventh of November next.

WEDDING BELLS. Mr. John H. Dinegan and Miss Hannah, daughter of Mr. William Webb, were united in marriage at St. John's Church, on Thursday morning. After the ceremony they repaired to the residence of the bride, where, with a few friends, a short time was happily enjoyed. In the afternoon they started on their wedding tour, intending to visit New York and other cities. They will receive their friends after the 16th inst.

May prosperity and happiness be their lot through life.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS AT NATICK. The South Shore Commandery, of the number of eighty-five, headed by the Boston Cadet Band, visited Natick on Wednesday, as guests of the Natick Commandery, which celebrated its first day of the Trinity Commandery of Hudson and the Milford Commandery were also present with bands. The four commanderies paraded the streets of the town, gave a dress parade, and enjoyed an excellent dinner and the toasts following, at Walker's grove.

VISITING FRIENDS. We were pleased to receive a short call on Wednesday from Mr. Alonzo Fernald of Central City, Colorado, who with his wife is visiting friends in this town.

Mr. F. is looking well and we were pleased to learn of his large circle of friends in this vicinity.

On August 18th Queen Victoria signed a bill allowing married women control over property acquired separately. This is simply an act of justice that should have been accorded the women of England long ago. But better late than never.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE. The Republicans of this district hold a convention at Boston, on Wednesday next, to nominate a Representative to Congress.

"We come, we conquer." Such surely must have been the feeling of the Granite boys, on last Saturday afternoon, after winning the pipe for the third time. It was done in good shape and should throw credit upon the boys for their vigorous efforts. Some fears were expressed as the Vulture threw her first stream, which was a good one, but by those who had seen the practice of the Granite knew that she had been located and was able to do still better, which proved correct. As she came into line and threw her first stream, it gave a brighter outlook for the nervous ones, but when word went back to the brakes that only ten inches further and they were done, their muscles proved double, their work was simply immense; aided by the encouraging voices of their foreman and assistants, it proved itself all we expected. Cheer upon cheer went up, as they saw the magnificent stream which was thrown, which of course took the pipe. The Granite were aided by members of the Butler Boy of South Braintree, and the King Philip of Rockland; and to both companies we are sure that they felt very proud.

On all occasions there is always some one that shows the mean spirit, but the entire company, we wish to say, should not be criticised by this one act, by one who does not know what manners are, such a spirit, as was shown by one who was making an insult upon one of the Vulture's visiting company, is condemned by every member of the company, and the sooner such characters are discharged and turned out of the company, the sooner they will rise in the eyes of the public.

The Democrats of the District held a meeting on Monday evening and organized a Butler club, with Mr. Wm. Barry as president.

Mr. E. H. Doherty and family have moved into their new house. We wish them all happiness.

The Sabbath School, concert at the M. E. Church, last Sunday evening was very good, which is always the case. The singing and children's speaking all passed off very nicely, much to the praise of superintendent and teachers.

Mrs. Westlake sang at the church a piece from Gospel Songs, No. 4. "I will be satisfied" in a very fine manner.

The social dance at Temperance hall, evening, passed off in a very pleasant manner. We understand these dances are to be held once in two weeks.

Quite a number of our citizens are intending going in to see the president on his visit to Boston.

Golden Wedding at Neponset.

The children, grand-children, brothers, sisters, neighbors and friends, to the number of sixty, assembled at the residence of Henry L. Faxon, on Hyde Park, and about midnight aroused him, much to his surprise.

The one who made the clock was with the party and presented it to Mr. Bell. He welcomed and thanked them for their kindness; and all parties are pleased that he got it, for he is a favorite with East Milton and West Quincy people.

A. O. R.

BIRTHDAY PARTY. A few of the relatives of Mrs. Newell Adams assembled, on Monday afternoon, at her residence, on Pearl street, to enjoy with her a birthday party.

The most important events of her life, it being her eighty-seventh birthday. Mrs. Adams was quite smart, and it afforded her great pleasure to meet her friends and receive their congratulations, and a few hours were spent in pleasant sociability. Having enjoyed the afternoon in a most agreeable manner, an invitation was extended to the dining room, where a table with many choice luxuries was spread, which all partook of with a relish. It was the wish of all that Mrs. Adams might continue to enjoy good health, and receive the kind attention and love of her large circle of friends.

Resolutions.

Captain Bickers, Officers and members of the Ulysses Engine Co.

At a meeting of the Vulture Engine Co., No. 4, of Quincy Point, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved—Appreciating the valuable assistance rendered us by the Ulysses Engine Co., on the day of our parade, Sept. 30th, we do hereby,

Resolved—That the thanks of the Vulture Engine Co. be extended to the Ulysses Engine Co., No. 1, of Provincetown, for the valuable assistance rendered at the trial on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 30th.

Resolved—That we shall ever remember their gentlemanly conduct and the brotherly feeling exhibited while we were,

Resolved—That we deeply regret that a company of their character could not have visited the town without being insulted by members of the Granite Engine Co., No. 3. Assuring them that we feel the insult as personal to ourselves, we desire to express our admiration of their for bearing under such provocation.

Resolved—That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Ulysses Engine Co., to the Provincetown Advocate, Cape Cod Item of Yarmouth, and Quincy Patriot for publication.

Atlantic.

A large number of our residents witnessed the parade of the Fire Department last Saturday.

The J. Q. A. Chemical Engine Company, on their way to and from the parade, made a very good appearance, marching to excellent music, furnished by the Scituate band. Early in the evening they paraded of an excellent supper, prepared by the ladies of Atlantic, which the supper came an outdoor concert on Atlantic street, by their favorite band, which drew a large audience, many coming from Neponset. The band stand and the houses in the immediate vicinity were finely illuminated by the ladies of Atlantic. This, we believe, was the first band concert ever given in our village, and it is therefore evident that some good can be derived from an engine company besides that received from fire service.

The Road Commissioners have met at work repairing the side-walks on Depot street. It was much needed.

Neponset Bridge is again being repaired, in the hope that it will stand a little longer. We again suggest, as the bridge is in such a bad state of repair, that it should be lighted, at least on dark nights, and the Commissioners would do well if they added two additional lamps.

East Milton Items.

On Sunday evening last a Harvest Concert was given at the Congregational Church which reflected much credit on both superintendent and scholars.

Mrs. H. L. Brokenshire returned last Tuesday from a pleasant trip to the White Mountains.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. O. A. Adams is slowly improving.

Miss Cummerford of Boston will substitute for the coming winter at the East Granary School.

The weekly prayer meetings will be held every Friday evening at the Church in East Granary, on the first of the month, for the purpose of learning new hymns.

On Monday afternoon last Mr. H. E. Sheldon and J. A. Simpson were thrown from a buggy, but escaped serious injuries.

Last week Thursday evening the Rev. Mr. Gilman of the place delivered an exceedingly interesting lecture at Associate's Hall, Milton. The subject being "The Land of the Nile" with photographic views of the great Nile, the Nile, and of the leading characters.

For the Patriot.

East Milton.

DEAR PATRIOT:—A cuckoo clock was drawn on Monday evening, in this village, valued at about $50 by Mr. James H. Bell of Hyde Park, driver for C. F. Farnsworth's bakery. A party of five or more, who were in Hyde Park, and about midnight aroused him, much to his surprise.

The one who made the clock was with the party and presented it to Mr. Bell. He welcomed and thanked them for their kindness; and all parties are pleased that he got it, for he is a favorite with East Milton and West Quincy people.

ACCIDENT. Mr. Michael Willis, father of Mrs. George Brackett, a gentleman about sixty years of age, was quite severely injured by stepping from the cars while they were moving, on Tuesday evening, at the centre depot. He was thrown to the platform, and his face was very severely bruised, and he had a narrow escape from a more serious accident, as he came near being drawn between platform and cars.
